Budget Bill Called Back . . .

Boost Sought In School Aid

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

Rural-oriented senators launched a major effort in the Legislature Tuesday to increase by 50% or more the current level of state financial support for public schools.

The state aid issue surfaced suddenly after lawmakers switched signals on consideration of the Budget Comimttee's operational appropriations bill, called it back to general file and began word-by-word deliberation of the proposal.

Sen. Wayne Ziebarth of Wilcox proposed that the committee's recommended appropriation of $50 million for assistance to schools be boosted to $75 million for the 1969-71 fiscal biennium.

Harsh Wants More

Sen. Lester Harsh of McCook suggested that the figure be hiked even higher to $80 million.

"That's not enough, but it's a step in the right direction," Sen. Willard Waldo of DeWitt declared.

Legislative approval of Harsh's proposal would trigger a one-half per cent increase in the state sales tax rate, or a proportionate hike in state income tax rates.

Debate on the Ziebarth and Harsh amendments had barely begun when senators adjourned for the day.

The Budget Committee has recommended that aid to public schools be maintained at its current level of $25 million a year.

Changed Minds

Consideration of the budget bill, LB1421, began Tuesday afternoon when senators changed their minds about delaying debate until second stage floor consideration when 25 votes would have been required to amend the appropriations package.

Lawmakers on a 23-15 vote, returned the bill to general file where it can be amended by a simple majority count. The Legislature had advanced the measure without debate Monday on a 22-17 vote.

Legislators quickly turned down, in a 2-32 rout, Sen. Clifton Batchelder's plea to send the bill back to the committee for further cuts.

Batchelder said the budget unit, of which he is a member, should prepare an alternative plan reducing proposed operational expenditures by $16 million in order to produce a total package which could be funded within the revenue limits of the present 2% sales tax and 10% personal income tax rate.

Only Sen. Theodore Wenzlaff of Sutton joined Batchelder in supporting such an effort.

Budget Chairman Richard Marvel of Hastings has said the $297.3 million general fund proposal prepared by the committee could be funded by a 2¼% sales tax and a 10% personal income tax rate.

Waldo said the top priority for use of sales-income tax revenue should be accorded to Nebraska's schools.

Rural opposition to school district reorganization would "dissolve" if sufficient state aid can be pumped into schools so as to remove "the inequality of distribution of the school (financial) burden," he said.

Pays Only 15%

State government pays only 15% of public school costs in Nebraska, Waldo said. That percentage ought to be 50%, or even more, he argued.

Harsh said he would like to see state aid boosted even higher than the $40 million annual level which he proposed, "but I want to be realistic."

Senators completed word-by-word consideration of the first 13 pages of the omnibus 77-page budget bill before Ziebarth presented his state aid proposal.

To Pay Past Dues

No other amendments were proposed, although Sen. C. W. Holmquist of Oakland said he will later ask the addition of $8,000 for the governor's office budget to pay past dues for membership in the Governors Conference.

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff questioned whether the committee included sufficient funding for legislative budget staff services.

Marvel said the committee provided for five staff members who could probe state agency spending practices and budgetary needs. But, he noted, he personally would like to see two additional staff positions funded.

'U.S. OPENS PEACE DOOR'

MOTHER HURT, BUT BABIES APPEAR

While a mother swan, shelled by stones as she sat on her nest in a cemetery, fights for her life, two of her cygnets make their appearance in the world and a third tries to. The eggs were taken to a Davenport, Iowa, hatchery after the mother was injured.

Nixon Advises Hanoi: Follow

. . . MIDWAY ASSESSED

Washington (UPI) — President Nixon said Tuesday on his return from the Midway Island conference on Vietnam that the United States had opened wide the door to peace. He urged Hanoi to follow him through that door.

In remarks to a welcoming audience on the White House lawn, Nixon stressed that the war is not over, but he noted that Midway was regarded as a turning point in World War II and said, "We have finally reached the point where we can begin to bring American boys home."

Nixon said that in his May 14 speech and by announcing plans to withdraw 25,000 U.S. troops from Vietnam, "we have opened wide the door to peace and now we invite the leaders of North Vietnam to walk with us through that door" by also withdrawing forces from South Vietnam or by negotiating for peace in Paris "or both."

"Now is the time for them to act," Nixon said. "If they fail to act in one direction or the other, they must bear the responsibility for blocking the road to peace which we have opened."

He also said the Midway conference meant two other things:

—South Vietnamese forces are now so equipped and trained that they can take over a substantial portion of the combat fighting.

—President Nguyen Van Thieu completely supports Nixon's eight-point peace program.

Much Shooting, Talking Ahead

Although Nixon said that after five years, the United States now could begin withdrawing some of its forces, there still was plenty of fighting and negotiation to do.

The welcoming crowd that greeted Nixon as he stepped out of a helicopter which carried him on the last leg of his journey included Cabinet members, congressional leaders, and government workers invited to the White House grounds for the occasion. Among those present were Senate Democratic whip Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew.

NLF Sets Up 'Provisional Government'

© New York Times Service

By DREW MIDDLETON

Paris — The Viet Cong's National Liberation Front delegation to the Paris peace talks Tuesday announced the establishment of a "revolutionary provisional government" to rule South Vietnam.

A front spokesman said a congress of 88 representatives from all over South Vietnam met from June 6 to 8 in a "liberated area" and decided to form the provisional regime to "direct the struggle of the population of South Vietnam against American aggression."

The diplomatic consensus was that the creation of the provisional government significantly hardened the Communist position in the peace talks and dimmed the prospects of any coalition in which Communists and members of President Nguyen Van Thieu's government could participate.

Resistance Forces

The NLF spokesman said the congress represented all resistance forces in the country, including the NLF, the Alliance of National, Democratic and Peace Forces and other "patriotic organizations."

The spokesman declined to name the president of the new government.

The formation of the provisional revolutionary government appeared to be qualified allied sources to be the most important step in an intensive Communist effort to establish a credible alternative to Thieu's government.

Designation of the government as provisional leaves the way open for its replacement, in the event of a peace settlement, by a Communist-dominated regime, these sources suggested.

Sources close to the two Communist delegations to the peace talks said Nguyen Huu Tho, chief of the NLF, and Trinh Dinh Thao, chairman of the alliance, had been co-chairmen of the congress.

Broadcast By Hanoi

Tho was quoted in a broadcast from Hanoi, monitored in Hong Kong and circulated here, to the effect that the provisional regime would establish in the future a permanent government "that will recognize and include all classes, all sections and all strata of the patriotic population of South Vietnam."

Workman Hurt In Fall

A 22-year-old Lincoln man was critically injured Tuesday when he fell from the roof of a two and one-half story building he was working on.

The man, Roland Wewel of 3636 No. 52nd, was taken to Bryan Memorial Hospital where he was reported in critical condition in the intensive care unit.

Lincoln contractor Harold Heiser said Wewel suffered a fractured skull, either from hitting his head during the fall or landing.

Workers said Wewel apparently lost his balance while working on the roof of the apartment building.

Hail, Tornado Hit State

Thunderstorms, hail and a tornado hit parts of south central Nebraska Tuesday night.

A tornado touched down a half mile southwest of Bertrand but U.S. Weather Bureau officials at Grand Island said there was no damage. The tornado was moving northeasterly.

Another tornado was reportedly sighted in the air near Beatrice.

Curtis received about four inches of rain in two hours and hail for about an hour Tuesday night. The hail was mostly a half inch in diameter, but some was as large as golf balls.

An official at the Curtis police station there said the hail drifted up to eight inches in some spots and was plugging up storm sewers.

He said there was a report of a washout on a gravel road north of town.

Cozad had golf ball-size hail for about five minutes and then had heavy rain, police officials said.

Maywood, six miles west of Curtis, reportedly had similar weather conditions.

Less severe thundershowers were reported at Sidney, North Platte, Scottsbluff and Grand Island.

Emphasis At Women's Reformatory Will Remain Focused On Individual

By CRAIG CALLAWAY
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

York — Programs probably will differ, but the emphasis at the Nebraska Women's Reformatory will stay focused on the individual woman, according to Mrs. Marolyn Gaffney, superintendent-to-be.

Mrs. Gaffney, who takes over from retiring Mrs. Gladys Ellenson July 1, remarked that since she and her predecessor are different persons, it's likely some of their approaches to problems will vary, but the aim will be the same — preparing women to return to society as useful citizens.

To do that, one treats each woman in her charge as an individual, Mrs. Gaffney said: "The one and only thing any two women who've been sent here have in common is that they're in the same institution; there the similarity ends."

She added, "Until we help a woman solve her individual problems, we can't accomplish much." Asked, however, if she anticipates any special programs that will differ from those employed by Mrs. Ellenson during the past 10 years, Mrs. Gaffney declined to be specific — lest she "say too much" now, and find her ideas "impractical" after being on the job. Mrs. Gaffney will train at the institution under Mrs. Ellenson during June.

The new superintendent was born and raised in Loup City, and taught school there, with two interruptions, from 1932 to 1955. That year she more or less got "talked into" a summer job at the Whitehall Home for Children, she recalled, and found she liked institution work very much. That August she transferred to the Geneva Girl's Training School, starting as a cottage parent.

While she was a receptionist at Geneva later in the 1950's, Mrs. Gaffney worked for Mrs. Ellenson, who then was assistant superintendent.

By the time she accepted the appointment at York, Mrs. Gaffney had worked "in every area except the boiler room" at Geneva. She was administrative assistant when the chance to move to York came along.

Mrs. Gaffney's assistant superintendent at York will be especially fit for "counseling," which will be the chief part of her job, the new superintendent said. She is a Catholic nun, Sister Joyce Stechcon, a member of the Order of Notre Dame, and has been given permission to take the lay job.

The assistant will bring teaching and correctional work experience to the job. She will be called "Miss Stechcon" and will wear regular clothes at York.

Mrs. Gaffney and her husband Earl Gaffney, who is retired, moved to York Feb. 20 this year and are getting used to living "off campus," having lived on the institution grounds at Geneva.

The Gaffneys, both widowed, have been married about two years. Golf and traveling are favorite pastimes, and the new superintendent also plays an electric organ. "Some people take tranquilizers; I play that," she said, "that's my tranquilizer."

As to the job ahead she said, "I'm anxious about it. By that I don't mean it's disturbing me; I mean I'm anticipating getting on with it."

Man Says Contractors, Pentagon 'Play Games'

Washington (AP) — The Pentagon and defense contractors "play games" together to underestimate purposely the cost of weapons systems the taxpayer is asked to buy, a Navy procurement specialist said Tuesday.

Gordon W. Rule testified before a House-Senate Economic subcommittee on military spending that the "disingenuous" process he described is used to nail Congress into long-term procurement of weapons whose true costs will only be disclosed in later years.

Rule is director of procurement control and clearance in the Navy Material Division. He pioneered a contract process, now discarded, that determines what the government should pay for weapons rather than what contractors want to charge.

Yarborough Attacks

Across the Capitol, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., accused the Budget Bureau of having become "an adjunct to the Defense Department." He said its examiners go hat in hand to the Pentagon to review the $80-billion defense budget.

Yarborough, chairman of a Senate Appropriations subcommittee, produced an admission that the Budget Bureau has 30 examiners to scrutinize $27 billion in domestic social programs and only 32 for the massive defense budget.

Deputy Budget Director Philip Hughes, who defended his agency, conceded that while it reviews the programs and procedures involved in $42.5 billion of defense procurement contracts "we do not review contracts case by case."

Hughes and Yarborough disagreed over the senator's assertion that, whereas domestic budget cuts must be appealed by the Cabinet officer to the White House, the Budget Bureau must ask White House approval for any reductions it recommends in the Pentagon budget.

"I'll state candidly, Yarborough said. "That's not my information."

Hearings In Pentagon

In response to questions, Hughes conceded that most hearings on budget questions of civilian agencies take place in the Budget Bureau but for the defense budget, "The majority of the hearings take place in the Pentagon."

That means, Yarborough said, that civilian agencies "come over hat in hand to you," while for the defense budget "you go to the Pentagon hat in hand."

Rule told the economic subcommittee, "we must stop playing games."

"The services know if they really tell the Department of Defense civilian officials what a system will cost, they will scrub it," he said.

"The Department of Defense knows that if they tell Congress what it will really cost they will scrub it."

"This is ridiculous," Rule said. "But this is what we do . . . We know it will cost more money but we get so deep in that down the road we will get more money."

Proxmire Moved

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the subcommittee, said Rule's observation "was one of the most revealing and significant statements in these hearings."

"I think it's a disgrace," he said. "We're being lied to."

Space Station Project Shot Down By Budget

World News

Washington (AP) — The Pentagon shot down the nation's only military man-in-space project, the $3-billion Manned Orbiting Laboratory, Tuesday. The reason: "continuing urgency" to cut spending.

The cancellation was announced by Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard, who acknowledged that "we're giving up for the time being" the idea of a military mission for men in space.

The action is expected to save close to $300 million in the new fiscal year which begins July 1 and about $1.5 billion over the next five years. Some $1.3 billion already has been spent since 1963.

The MOL project, which contemplated sending two-man teams to live and work in a "shirtsleeve" environment in a space capsule for 30 days at a time, was at least 2½ years behind schedule. Its price had grown about 50%.

The Nixon administraton previously had sliced some $1.1 billion from the Johnson administration's farewell defense budget of $79 billion.

Packard also cited advances in unmanned satellite systems for such purposes as research, communications, navigation and meteorology.

There have been persistent reports that the MOL, which would have been launched near polar orbit travelling over both Russia and China,would have had a spy mission as well, but Packard would not discuss this aspect.

Air Force Secretary Robert C. Seamans Jr., said after Packard's announcement that his service is "disappointed" about the decision.

The first manned flight of the MOL originally had been scheduled for this coming December, but was gradually delayed to mid-1972.

Nothing 'Unfavorable'

Packard emphasized that the cancellation "is not in any sense an unfavorable reflection on any of the MOL contractors or the Air Force."

He said the program "was well managed and all participants worked well to achieve excellent results."

As conceived, the Air Force planned to send aloft a 30,000-pound, 72-foot-long spacecraft, atop a Titan III rocket booster with two million pounds of thrust.

Pope Rejects Membership In World Church Council

Geneva (AP) — Pope Paul VI, on an historic visit to the heartland of Calvinist tradition, prayed Tuesday with the non-Catholics of the World Council of Churches but gently rejected, for now, Roman Catholic membership in the global organization that represents many of the Protestant and Orthodox bodies of Christianity.

Addressing leaders of the 234 churches in the WCC, the pontiff declared:

"In fraternal frankness, we do not consider that the question of membership of the Catholic Church in the World Council is so mature that a positive answer could or should be given. The question still remains an hypothesis."

Threatened antipapal demonstrations were contained or dispersed by security forces and Swiss police on the pontiff's visit.

John Calvin (1509-64) was a reformer who carried on his crusade in Geneva to promote in his own way the 16th century Reformation that made the deepest schism in Christian history.

The Pope's welcome to Geneva was generally calm and restrained compared with his six previous tours outside Vatican City and Italy, starting with the Holy Land in 1964. There was none of the tumult he experienced there and in India, New York, Portugal, Turkey and Colombia.

The Pope came here primarily at the invitation of the International Labor Organization, a specialized agency of the United Nations celebrating its 50th anniversary. At ILO headquarters, before meeting with the World Council of Churches leadership, he pleaded for worldwide efforts to end hunger, discrimination and economic exploitation of the working classes.

"Hear this cry of sorrow which still rises up from suffering humanity," he exclaimed. He called for an end to "the growing contrast" between rich and poor in many parts of the world, and added: "For it is the peace of the world which is at stake, the future of mankind."

The Pope announced his stand on church council membership before joining in common prayer with WCC leaders. It was the first time in history that a Pope had made a personal pilgrimage to a collective leadership of non-Catholic Christians.

The 71-year-old pontiff, his voice quavering with emotion, spoke hopefully of the possibility of all Christians reuniting some day.

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake of the United States, secretary-general of the WCC, welcomed the Pope and spoke of the "amazing renewal of the Roman Catholic Church" in a new spirit of relationship with other churches.

He described the papal visit as proclaiming to "the whole church and the whole world that the ecumenical movement flows on ever wider, ever deeper toward the unity and renewal of Christ's church at He wills it."

Oil Center Fire Halted

Taunton, Mass. (AP) — A fire broke out in a heating oil distribution center, but was brought under control quickly.

Nuclear Heart Pacer Undergoes Trial In Dog

Washington (AP) — The government announced Tuesday the world's first known nuclear-powered cardiac pacemaker — a potential weapon against a serious form of heart disease — has been sucessfully implanted in a dog.

The device is designed to operate for at least 10 years, and its implantation was hailed as a potential "major milestone" in the cardiac field.

The Atomic Energy Commission, which developed the device, announced the operation had taken place at the public health service's National Heart Institute.

The nuclear-powered device, only two-thirds the size of a pack of cigarettes, and weighing only 3½ ounces, is hopefully designed as a long-lasting replacement for battery-operated artificial cardiac pacemakers now used by 20,000 Americans.

"The mercury cells that power most conventional artificial pacemakers have a limited lifetime due to battery depletion," the announcement said, "and therefore the pacemakers must be replaced frequently, usually within two or three years of the original implantment."

Artificial pacemakers are designed to maintain normal heartbeat in patients stricken with "heart block," a condition which usually results from disease-induced injury to the heart's specialized electrical conduction system.

Reds Sock Positions At Dak To

Saigon (AP) — Enemy rockets and mortars pounded allied-positions around embattled Dak To overnight, and the U.S. command early Wednesday sent in five B52 bomber missions to strike back at the enemy gunners for a second straight day.

Hit hardest in the latest round of shellings was the Ben Het Special Forces camp in the Dak To area of the central highlands, 280 miles northeast of Saigon. About 110 mortar, artillery and recoilless rifle rounds rained on the camp but headquarters said casualties were light among the Americans, South Vietnamese troops and civilian irregulars within.

The jungled hills around Dak To have been the arena of heavy fighting for weeks between South Vietnamese troops and North Vietnamese regulars, with heavy casualty tolls on both sides.

Two Youths Accused Of Murder In Fiery Deaths Of 12 In Family

Parkersburg, W. Va. (AP) — A teen-age girl, said by police to be angered over being told not to date her first cousin, and her young brother were charged with murder Tuesday in the fiery deaths of their parents and 10 brothers and sisters.

Police said evidence showed that Susan Bailey, 15, had been banned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey from dating the 17-year-old cousin Saturday.

Detective D. V. Eaton said the slim brunette and her parents had argued about the boyfriend "for about a week" and "it could have been a factor" in the predawn blaze that swept through the family's eight-room house Sunday.

Susan and her brother, Roger, 13, were led crying into Wood County Circuit Court Tuesday for a preliminary hearing.

The hearing was continued pending reports of psychiatric examinations and an investigation by the county child welfare department.

8-Room Frame House

The youngsters were charged by prosecutor Bruce White with setting the fire which rapidly swept through the family's eight-room frame home in the predawn hours Sunday.

Only their grandfather Obie Bailey, 63, managed to escape from the house, which authorities said burned "like a piece of paper."

Sheriff L. W. Bechtold said investigators found evidence that the house had been splashed with gasoline. He said mattresses had been soaked with it.

Several Factors Blamed For Wheat Estimate Cut

. . . Need Of Moisture, Frost Damage Cited

By the Associated Press

Government crop experts Tuesday predicted a winter wheat production for Nebraska this year of 79,692,000 bushels.

This is a drop in the yield of about one bushel per acre from last month's prediction of 82,440,000 bushels for the state.

Last year Nebraska had a total production of 101,088,000 bushels.

Kenneth Logan of the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics in Lincoln said several factors account for the drop in the monthly prediction.

Logan said some fields in the northwest part of the state are badly in need of moisture. He cited particularly dry conditions in Box Butte and Sheridan Counties.

According to Logan there also is a possibility of some damage caused by freezing temperatures last month in western sections of the state. However the extent of the damage hasn't been totally determined, he said.

Severe Winter

The effects of the severe winter were still being felt also, Logan said. He noted that growers in several areas were unable to get into their fields to plow them up. As a result, said Logan, there are several weedy fields with very thin stands.

However, Logan said favorable weather conditions will help the winter-stunted plots and rains would be a big boost to the crop in areas of the northwest.

In Washington, officials of the Department of Agriculture noted that winter wheat acreage allotments had been cut back 13% nationally this year to head off rising surpluses.

The USDA experts forecast a total national production of 1,161,450,000 bushels this year, compared with last year's record of 1,459,458,000 bushels.

Repeated Contact With Pesticide Blamed In Spalding Man's Death

Grand Island (AP) — The death of a 52-year-old Spalding farmer was attributed by his attending physician Tuesday to repeated contact with a pesticide which contained poisonous compounds.

The farmer, Joseph M. Pritchard, had been using the pesticide for about 10 days. The physician said Pritchard complained of feeling ill a week ago Monday, but continued to work until Thursday when he collapsed. He died in a Grand Island hospital Tuesday.

The physician, who declined to be identified by name, said the cause of death was repeated contact with an organic phosphorus compound found in a pesticide used to combat rootworm.

He said the bag in which the pesticide was sold carried warnings of its poisonous contents and instructions for safe handling.

The physician said he had called the manufacturer and learned of a test which confirmed the cause of death. An autopsy also was performed.

He said the compound has a cumulative effect and is rapidly absorbed through the skin as well as by inhaling the dust. Its primary effect is on the central nervous system, but it also affects the heart, lungs and kidneys.

The test he said, "has to do with • determination of the blood cholesteroi activity."

The physician said precautions include frequent bathing and shampooing, frequent changes of clothing and the use of a face mask. Symptoms, he said, include an excess of saliva in the mouth, strong headaches, abdominal cramping, nausea and vomiting.

$9 Million For Missouri's Channel Work Requested

Washington (AP) — The Mississippi Valley Association has asked a House appropriations subcommittee to approve $9 million for channel improvement on the Missouri River from Sioux City, Iowa, to the mouth, according to L. M. Paramore, vice president of the MVA.

Paramore presented various speakers who asked for approval of a total $66,787,000 for various water projects in the Mississippi, Missouri and Arkansas River valley areas.

The budget recommended $4.5 million for the work, but communities along the Missouri have geared their plans to a completed nine foot channel instead of the present average 6.5 foot channel, Paramore said.

In support of the request for additional funds for the nine foot channel on the Missouri, Anthony Kucera of Omaha, area manager of the MVA, presented a series of statements in behalf of various Nebraska interests declaring that any delay in completing the nine foot channel would result in serious economic hardship to Nebraska.

Gov. Norbert Tiemann, the City of Omaha, the Omaha Dock Board and the Omaha Chamber of Commerce all were represented in statements urging that the engineers be permitted to work at their full capability on the river channel.

Kucera pointed out that about $300 million has been invested in river facilities by public and private interests and they cannot produce maximum economic benefits until the river channel can handle full barge loads.

Power Generation Records Set

Omaha (UPI) — New power generation records were established at the Missouri River dams as the reservoirs continued to rise to record high storage levels, according to Brig. Gen. C. Craig Cannon, division engineer for the Corps of Engineers.

On May 29 the six power plants generated 39,513,000 kilowatt hours of electrical energy, establishing a new daily record. A new peak hourly record of 2,052,000 kilowatts was set between 11 a.m., and noon on the same day. This amount of generation would meet the entire requirements of the states of South Dakota and Nebraska, although the power is actually marketed over an eight-state area.

By the end of May snowmelt runoff from the mountains appeared to have peaked. Unless significant rains occur, inflows to the reservoir system will diminish during June, and the amount of water from mountain snowmelt will probably be somewhat less than normal.

By the end of May storage behind the six dams had climbed to 66,294,000 acre-feet, for a gain of 651,000 acre-feet during May.

May energy generation at the six projects totaled 980,000,000 kilowatt hours.

Navigation tonnage on the river through May of this year totaled 566,000 tons — 19% behind last year.

Rouse attended the University of Nebraska for one year before being graduated from Colorado State College.

Guerrilla Force Repeats Attack

Bangkok (UPI) — Communist guerrillas have again attacked a police unit occupying one of their base camps on the Thai-Malaysian border.

The attack prompted speculation that a Communist weapons cache or supply dump may be located near the camp, which was overrun by government forces May 11, police sources said Tuesday.

Soil Testing Via Helicopter Under Way In McCook Area

Nebraska News

Albuquerque, N.M. (AP) — Scientists from Sandia Laboratory in Albuquerque are conducting tests this week at the McCook, Neb., airport as part of the laboratory's terradynamics program.

The scientists are using a helicopter to test a device developed by the laboratory that allows aerial evaluation of soil texture and composition.

Small ballistic-shaped devices are being dropped on the airport grounds from the helicopter. Sandia spokesmen said the fall of the devices is retarded by a parachute.

They penetrate the ground below the helicopter and, in some cases, radio data to the aircraft about the type of soil.

The tests at the airport are similar to tests conducted recently in different parts of the country.

The device has several military and civilian engineering applications, the laboratory said.

In a combat zone, for example, sites behind enemy lines with potential for use as airfields could be evaluated with the terradynamics probe from the air. It would not be necessary for a ground party to examine the soil to determine if it were suitable for an airfield.

In civil engineering, soils in remote areas could be evaluated more easily from the air than sending a ground party into rugged country.

EVENTS

IN PERSPECTIVE

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The broadcast medium might be understandably perturbed about the latest U.S. Supreme Court decision on freedom of speech. Under the ruling, a TV or radio station can do little that is controversial involving people and possibly even issues.

What the court said is that everyone has a right to reply on things on radio and TV. The medium has long faced the sticky problem of equal time in the appearance of people on radio and TV but this has not been expanded.

If you let Candidate A appear on the air, you have to let his opponent on. Now, if the radio or TV makes a comment on its own hook about Candidate A, the candidate has a right to free air time for a response.

All of this comes about because the air frequencies are limited and because they belong to everyone and are only used by the broadcast medium. Thus, you have to be fair about it all.

Well, fair is fair but it seems as though the high court has gone a long way to make it stick. We wonder how the major network commentators will be able to operate. They are, after all, many times editorializing and this is the thing that can get them in deep water.

If they editorialize on the failure of Rep. Wilbur Mills to get the tax surcharge extension out of his House ways and means committee, they better be nice or prepared for a possible rebuttal at the expense of network time. If Mills didn't like what they said, he could demand and would have to be given equal time to reply to the editorial.

Maybe some people will think this is all right. Maybe some wish the same thing applied to newspapers, although it does not, but we think the action is highly destructive.

★

The court's opinion traced the history of federal regulations of the airways and said: "Without government control, the medium would be of little use because of the cacophony of competing voices, none of which could be clearly and predictably heard."

This is obviously true but it refers to a matter of mechanics, not free speech. Naturally, if everyone who wanted to could start broadcasting on whatever frequency pleased him, you would have a mess.

If you turned on your radio or TV you would get four or five stations at one time, perhaps more. Only competition would work to change this, on the theory that no one could make any money with more than one station on a single frequency.

But even if this worked, one station could deliberately clog the frequency of its competitor whenever it wanted to. Of course, FCC licensing has been an essential ingredient of the development of the broadcasting industry.

It is another matter, however, when it comes to programming, and that is what we are talking about. When the law requires such extensive equal time, it brings about the same "cacophony of competing voices" that the court talked about in regards to the mechanics of things.

This, however, is not the most likely thing to happen. If forced to give equal time for everyone it has on the air and everything it says on the air, the broadcast medium is more likely to become sterile.

The medium has been criticized for lack of substance in programming but how can it present programs of substance without controversy? Substance is controversial and anyone who doesn't recognize that just doesn't know what he is talking about.

We think the court ruling will not contribute to greater freedom of speech, but will simply muzzle what might otherwise be an effective medium of constructive communications.

The Graduate

Abandoned Cars Go

City government's program to remove abandoned cars — estimated in Lincoln to number around 2,400 — has been carried on efficiently over the past few months and has achieved some real results as compared to other cities where the problem has become so staggering that government is afraid to tackle it.

Since the program started Dec. 1 last year, some 800 junked and abandoned vehicles have been removed from unauthorized areas, according to Leo Scherer Jr., the mayor's administrative assistant and the official chiefly responsible for administering the car removal program.

The success of the program largely has been due to the cooperation between city government, the volunteer efforts of the Lancaster County Emergency Radio Services Inc., the United States Marine Reserves, private salvage yards which accept the vehicles and the many citizens who voluntarily remove illegal vehicles or report them to the proper authorities.

As one mark of a successful program, it can be noted that there has been the necessity of only a few court proceedings to enforce the abandoned car ordinance due to the general cooperation of the community with a well-organized and publicized program.

Scrapping the abandoned cars has been beneficial to the community, of course, because they are eyesores as well as health hazards and are dangerous attractions for children who might play in them. The program has helped to eliminate urban blight in Lincoln and we hope citizens continue to cooperate with the city in removing the remaining junked or abandoned cars in the city. With more and more cars on the road and a new state auto testing program, the abandoned car problem could become increasingly serious unless a program such as Lincoln is undertaking is adhered to.

Another Kick In Teeth

There are undoubtedly ways in which higher interest rates can be considered anti-inflationary but our own opinion is to the contrary. The latest advance in rates, a jump of one percent to a total of 8½ percent on the past of eastern banks for "prime" loan customers, will cripple the average wage earner.

Any way you look at it, it means a higher price for everyone on everything they buy on credit and buying on credit it just about everyone's bag these days. The idea of the administration in Washington in encouraging higher rates is to discourage business spending on expansion and inventories.

But suppose this worked, then what would happen? There would then be a shortage of goods, less of many things than the market demanded. Excess demand means higher prices and there is no other practical way to look at it in the free enterprise system.

That's the guts of the system, whether you like it or not and regardless of its morality. In the system, you get what the traffic will bear. If you can price a color TV at $600 rather than $575 and still sell all the machines you can make, your price is going to be $600.

In addition to the creation of shortages, the higher rates mean a directly higher cost on everything you buy, even a lot of what you buy for cash. Few large businesses operate totally on cash and they will be paying more for their credit operations and passing the cost on to customers. Whatever else its impact, the higher interest rates will hurt the most the smaller wage earner who is already having a terrible time making ends meet.

Draft Is Bad

Omaha, Neb.

It would seem to be impossible to formulate a just draft system to conscript men for an immoral war. Nevertheless, the attempt is still being made, and recently President Nixon suggested the substitution of a lottery system instead of the present method of selecting conscripts.

But it has been argued by many Americans from Daniel Webster to the present generation of critics, that the draft, or any form of involuntary servitude, and freedom are mutually exclusive. It is absurd to believe that blind chance is the answer to the evils of the Selective Service System.

Furthermore, Mr. Nixon omitted any provision for selective conscientious objector status for those men who, for reasons of conscience, cannot participate in a particular war.

In contrast, the World Council of Churches has declared that the legal right of an individual to refrain from participation in a war which he believes is immoral must now be regarded as an essential to the protection of fundamental human rights. The condemnation of German war criminals at Nuremberg in 1947 and the present crisis in this country regarding Vietnam are strong arguments in favor of the WCC declaration.

Old West Law

Who was responsible for introducing the "self-defense" act, LB925? Can you publish a roll call vote on it?

"Shoot first and ask questions later."

Need Tough Law

Beatrice, Neb.

I am surprised at our governor not knowing the law any better than he pretends. What percent does he think that three votes out of the whole number of senators represent? All of the laws that I have heard of passing do so by a majority of two-thirds or three-fourths.

No state can make any laws that conflict with federal law. Every citizen of the United States has a right to buy, sell, manufacture and protect his property. Federal law does not say how he must protect himself, only that he can do so.

The governor's veto of the self-defense act is without power. It is shiftless. We need such a substantial law with teeth in it.

Our state senators have upheld our law and I thank them for it.

PIONEER

No Fair Play

Lincoln, Neb.

Out of all the fracas of the State Board of Education happenings we can at least be thankful for Frank Landis from Lincoln and Norman Otto and Bob Simmons — they proved that there are some sensible heads elected to this important board.

They seem to say what I think most taxpayers feel: get the facts first. Too bad they were outvoted but maybe this will teach some voters to get on their feet and get to the ballot box next time around.

I think there is a sense of fair play most voters expect from board members even though they don't agree with them — but there wasn't any evidence of this either.

No Trial Needed

Seward, Neb.

I am extremely proud of our state and Legislature since the veto of the self-defense act, LB925, was overridden by the Legislature.

With this law in effect, criminals of any stature must fear that they will get justice, many times, before court trial.

I have been told by ones who are in a position to know that the ones in the penal complex now state that they intend to leave the State of Nebraska because of this law. This shows the impact it leaves with the criminals.

Welfare Militants Want More Benefits

Did you ever think the day might come when people on welfare would form their own union and send lobbyists to Washington to bargain for bigger relief checks?

Well, it's here.

Their National Welfare Rights Organization now claims a membership of 30,000 from poverty pockets in 70 cities. They have headquarters in Washington with a full-time staff of 39 and eight regional offices, financed in part by a Labor Department grant.

They've even got a motto: "It's not a privilege to be on welfare — it's a right."

Makes you wonder what they might do if some welfare worker turns down a demand for more money. Go on strike and take a job, maybe?

☆ ☆ ☆

For Thanksgiving Day, the Welfare Rights headquarters proclaimed a "National-Get-It-Week" and recommended demonstrations to say, "No, thanks, America." Members were encouraged to blow their heat and water money on frivolities and descend on the nation's department stores to demand credit cards.

In December, Welfare Rights launched a "Spend-the-Rent" campaign, advising those on relief to let their landlords go hang and go on a spending spree instead.

They were also urged to scorn Christmas food baskets and yuletide gifts of hand-me-downs and castoff toys, no matter how skillfully firemen had fixed them up with bright, new paint.

These catchy slogans didn't exactly do the firemen out of their Christmas project. Of 9,000,000 on welfare, only 30,000 call themselves "welfare militants."

☆ ☆ ☆

Not all of them are on reief, either. National Welfare members also include college students and frustrated social workers. They wear buttons picturing clenched fists and they stage sit-ins, street marches and rallies in the parks.

They stormed a session of 1,500 social workers in New York recently, captured the microphone and all but broke up the convention. While militant leaders demanded "dignity, justice and bread," their followers passed the hat for contributions.

One member explained she was fighting for "decent clothing and decent meals," and "no more insulting snooping around when I ask for something the law says I deserve, like extra clothing and furniture and a washing machine."

Making sure people on welfare get everything coming to them under the law is one of the organization's chief aims. But their primary goal is total overhaul of welfare regulations.

Ironically, that's just about what President Nixon wants, too. He is already on record with a tentative plan to up benefits by $500 million a year — in addition to the $3.7 billion the federal government spends and the $3.3 billion from state and local governments.

He still has to convince Congressmen. Some of them would rather see the poor get work, not welfare increases.

☆ ☆ ☆

Their mood won't be helped much by cases such as that of David Davis, a 31-year-old welfare client who lives in an air-conditioned New York apartment.

In the past five years he has managed to wangle extra money for the air conditioner, and for golf clubs and greens fees for himself and his wife as "therapy," plus special food allowances to replace money he lost at the race tracks.

He also wanted — but didn't get — welfare to buy him a trotting horse and a new washing machine, send his wife to a psychiatrist three times a week, and on a vacation to a dude ranch out West. He appealed the turndowns.

Mr. Davis has a long history of threatening caseworkers who reject his demands. He was arrested recently on a charge of larceny for cashing welfare checks totalling $222.20 and then trying to collect again, claiming he hadn't received them in the first place.

Marie Antoinette would have loved it.

Otepka's Case Still Causes Senate Grief

WASHINGTON — Republican senators have become increasingly unhappy over the appointment of Otto Otepka, dropped from the State Department for leaking classified information but now promoted to a $36,000 job on the Subversive Activities Control Board.

It now appears that the appointment is a sop more to right-wing Democratic senators than to Republicans — except for the Senate basso profundo, Everett Dirksen. Sen. Tom Dodd, a Democrat, is Otepka's staunchest supporter.

☆ ☆ ☆

Meanwhile, there is an interesting new development in the Otepka case, now hanging fire in the Senate.

It pertains to J. G. Sourwine, chief counsel for the Senate Internal Security Committee, and the man through whom Otepka leaked the State Department documents when both were trying to smear Walt Rostow, the Kennedy-Johnson national security adviser, as a security risk.

Sourwine has been extremely anxious to get Otepka confirmed and was the author of the Senate judiciary report praising him. It read: "Mr. Otepka states he does not have and has not had any formal or informal connections with the John Birch Society or the Liberty Lobby or Mr. Willis Carto."

It now develops that just the contrary was the fact. Otepka did have connections with these organizations and Sourwine knew the above as not the truth. Despite this, he wrote a report which such able fact-finders on the Senate Judiciary Committee as Sens. Sam Ervin, N.C., and John McClellan, Ark., embodied in their report.

The significance of this is threefold:

1. The Birch Society and Libery Lobby are organizations of the fascist right; while Carto, founder of the Liberty Lobby, is the big wheel in the neo-Nazi movement. He has written that it was a mistake for the United States to have fought against Hitler.

2. Otepka, in his new post on the Subversive Activities Control Board, will have the job of passing on right-wing subversives as well as left-wing subversives. Inasmuch as he has described Carto as upholding "the fine traditions of American life," he is prejudiced in advance.

3. The fact that Sourwine, Otepka and some members of the Senate Judiciary Committee are attempting to deceive the Senate, indicates a return to the old witch-hunting days when truth was not considered important in making subversive charges against government employes.

Closing Of Job Corps Centers: One Blow Too Many For Those Bordering On Bare Existence?

CLINTON, Iowa — It looks as spic and span as the campus of a small Midwestern college. So far as order and neatness go, the Clinton Job Corps Center has it over most campuses in protest and disruption.

The center, one of seven out of 17 for women trainees being closed down, has only two more months to go. Then the experiment housed in what was once a veterans' facility will be dismantled. After three years of operation the learning out of this brief experiment will go into dusty files with the Nixon administration taking a new tack in job training.

Economy is the principal reason for closing down 59 out of the total of 109 centers. The cost was high and the attack on the Job Corps program was mostly on that score. The General Learning Corporation (General Electric and Time, Inc.) operating the Clinton center is paid $5,125 for each girl for a course of 11 months. Travel and a cash allowance bring the total to $8,000.

But this fails to take into account the goal of the Job Corps centers. That was to take young men and women from the bottom of the heap — rejects, those who had been denied all the advantages of the affluent society — and rehabilitate them. It has meant not merely training in skills to get a job but health, deportment, self-confidence, some knowledge of the world beyond the impoverished backwaters in which they had led a half-life.

Many of the girls had not seen a doctor or a dentist for 10 years or more. Some were so close to illiteracy that they were unable to pick their own name out of a list. They came from Muleshoe, Texas; Hickory Flat, Tenn.; Big Shoe, Mont. One Indian girl's only address was the back seat of a junk car.

In these backwaters they would have been semi-literate drudges at best or, at worst, public charges whether in jail or in overcrowded hospital wards and whatever is today the equivalent of the poorhouse. The Indian girl is supervising 23 girls in a computer operation at a good salary. Of the 4,000 who have gone through the course, 75 to 80 percent have been placed in jobs or they have qualified for the military or have gone back to school.

When the news came that the Clinton center would be closed the girls, ranging in age from 16 to 21, launched a two-day telethon on the center's closed-circuit television system. The goal was to raise money to put over a protest. They sent wires to everyone they could think of who might have influence, from President Nixon to Pope Paul.

The Clinton community joined in. The president of the Chamber of Commerce went to Washington to plead for the center. While there was grumbling in this prosperous town, with its expanding industrial development, when the center was established on the whole the reception has been good.

With 80 percent of the trainees Negroes, most of them from the Deep South, it was an experiment to set them down in a community in which the resident Negro population is negligible. The complaint is that their boy friends nearby, coming from industrial centers, were raucous and badly behaved. Municipal Judge David Halbach has said that violations by the trainees and their friends of Iowa's strict alcoholic beverage laws has been lower on the average than for the community itself.

Economy aside, an argument for cutting back the Job Corps centers and perhaps eventually phasing them out was to provide the job training in or near cities where work is available once the training has been completed. The revised program will be carried out largely by the National Alliance of Business Men. The budget for next year provides an increase from $200 million to $420 million for this purpose.

A large question is still unanswered with this shift of emphasis. What about the rehabilitation of the boy or girl dumped at the bottom of the heap? The Job Corps centers have provided an environment as well as training on a seven-day a week basis, with the goal of making up in a year for the deprivations of a lifetime.

Whether the rejects can survive on their own in an urban training center is highly doubtful, in the view of those who have been close to the experiment. The very fact of closing down the centers after only three years is another blow of rejection. And for those who have lived on the border of bare existence one more blow is too many.

Judge Denies Salazar Writ Of Habeas Corpus

Joseph Salazar Jr., serving a life term for second degree murder from Adams County, was denied a writ of habeas corpus Tuesday by U.S. District Judge Robert Van Pelt.

Salazar, who had pleaded guilty to the 1966 knife slaying of Henry Spady of Hastings, contended in his application that his guilty plea was coerced, that he was not advised of his rights to counsel and that he did not knowingly, competently nor intelligently waive his right to counsel and was unrepresented throughout the proceedings.

Judge Van Pelt, in a memorandum opinion, ruled that Salazar's plea was voluntarily and intelligently given and that the record indicated that he was informed of his rights.

The court ruled that the waiver of rights was done knowingly, voluntarily and intelligently, and that prior to his entering the guilty plea, the court inquired of Salazar as to whether his intent to plea was voluntary and that Salazar replied it was.

Judge Van Pelt further ruled that there was nothing in evidence to indicate that the guilty plea resulted from information given Omaha police and that the statements given Omaha police did not influence Salazar to plead guilty.

Salazar had contended that conduct of Omaha police, by whom he was arrested, was in violation of Escobedo v. Illinois.

Judge Van Pelt stated that it was immaterial that the rules of Escobedo had been violated unless that violation influenced the guilty plea.

Lincoln Foundation Approves Two Grants

Grants totaling $3,500 to assist a camp for mentally retarded children and a neighborhood improvement program were approved by the Lincoln Foundation Tuesday.

Foundation members awarded a $2,500 grant to the Better Lincoln Committee to be used as part of matching funds for a $13,720 federal grant from the Office of Economic Opportunity for operating a neighborhood improvement program in the Malone Center-Clinton School area.

The program, to be headed by Mrs. Sue Scott, was designed to accomplish environment improvement through self-help efforts and to achieve demonstration projects, specifically in rehabilitation, new construction and repairs through the use of voluntary cooperation from the community.

A $1,000 grant was voted for the City Park and Recreation Department to make up a $3,000 fund for operating two four-week day camps for mentally retarded children at Pioneer Park.

The Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation, which had financed the entire program in previous years, contributed $2,000 for operating the day camp. One session will be conducted for educable mentally retarded children and the other session for trainable mentally retarded youths. Some 100 children will participate in the summer program.

Repeal Of Tax Ceiling Is Losing Supporters

Legislative support for a bill which would repeal the property tax mill levy ceilings for all Nebraska communities except Omaha and Lincoln began to unravel Tuesday.

The bill, LB860, was returned from final reading to second stage floor consideration for possible amendments.

During discussion on the motion to return the bill, a number of senators expressed objections to the measure.

No Opposition

When LB860 was amended on the floor last month to propose elimination of the statutory ceilings for first class cities and second class cities and villages, not one senator voted against the proposal.

Sen. Leslie Stull of Alliance said Tuesday the bill should be rejected. Sen. Herb Nore of Genoa called it "dangerous," and Sen. Edward Danner of Omaha warned that any further increase in local property taxes would be unfair.

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, who proposed repeal of the tax ceilings, ran into immediate opposition to further amendment of the bill to permit Lincoln and Omaha to levy taxes in excess of their present charter limits.

Sen. John Knight of Lincoln said he believes most of the Lancaster County delegation of senators would oppose such a move. Sen. William Swanson urged that it be given "more thought."

Syas Objected

Sen. George Syas of Omaha also objected to Carpenter's plan, and his colleague, Sen. Henry Pedersen Jr., suggested that cities be permitted to levy other forms of taxation rather than raise property taxes.

Carpenter said he will not pursue his proposal to include Lincoln and Omaha if their senators object.

But, he warned, he will oppose any increase in present state sales or income tax rates to provide more state financial aid for cities.

"I don't think this Legislature is in any frame of mind to send any more money back to the local level," Carpenter noted.

Only Alternative

The only alternative for cities to raise additional revenue to meet local needs is to hike their local property taxes, he said.

Many communities are already bumping into the statutory ceiling of 30 mills for second class cities and villages, and 25 mills for first class cities, Carpenter pointed out. And Omaha is almost at its present charter limit.

LB860 was sent back to second stage consideration on a 34-1 vote, and held for later action.

City-County Health Board OKs Budget

. . . $442,000 SOUGHT TO OPERATE DEPARTMENT NEXT YEAR

The Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Board Tuesday night approved a $441,967 budget for the 1969-70 fiscal year.

The new budget, outlined for the board by Budget Chairman Dr. E. L. Lampshire, compares with a $373,487 budget for 1968-69.

Dr. G. R. Underwood director of the City-County Health Department, explained that the main increases include:

—A 10% across-the-board salary increase for all staff to compensate for the rising cost of living and maintain salaries on a competitive level.

—A new administrative position and two new nursing positions.

—A salary increase of 24% from $13,874 to $16,828 for Environmental Sanitation Director L. A. Sanger, deferred the last two fiscal years.

—A new well-child pediatric dietary clinic in addition to the two already in existence.

—An $8,184 increase in office equipment expenditures.

—A $2,850 increase in Social Security.

Dr. Underwood explained that although the Nebraska Merit System minimum annual salary increase was only 5%, the 10% increase was necessary to compete for nurses with Lincoln General Hospital, which this year offered a 15% increase, and for sanitarians with larger cities, which offer much higher salaries.

A motion by Lampshire to require the board to meet monthly instead of quartely, as at present, was defeated.

The budget is still subject to approval by the city and county before it is accepted in final form.

Auditorium Advisory Board Approves 9% Higher Budget

The Pershing Auditorium Advisory Board gave its approval Tuesday to a 1969-70 budget that outlines $265,411 in expenditures.

The budget, up 9% from last year's, will be submitted to Mayor Sam Schwartzkopf for inclusion in his overall city budget that will be presented to the City Council.

Ivan Hoig, auditorium manager, in a written report to the board, said: "now more than ever before, Pershing must maintain a superb service policy, extend itself in public relations and do its uppermost to upgrade and modernize its physical structures, and above all go that extra plus, if we are to maintain our present array of customers."

Liquor Available

Board Chairman Dick Chapin announced during the meeting that the auditorium should be able to make liquor available for private functions in about two weeks.

He said necessary papers should be finalized by then.

The auditorium board believes it can attract more conventions and banquets if liquor is available for private gatherings.

Major items contributing to the increase in the budget included capital outlay for equipment and improvements and more funds for salaries.

The capital outlay request increased from $19,475 to $26,200 and proposed salary expenditures increased from $142,800 to $151,200.

Hoig suggested that the auditorium continue to be operated on the basis of a "break even" budget.

Some Disappointments

In a letter to Chapin, Hoig said the year has included both rewarding events and disappointments.

He said the Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus the roadshow production of "Hello Dolly," and the Ice Capades were financial disappointments, but that the Lincoln Gem & Mineral Rock Show and the Eddie Arnold show were huge successes.

He said the Ice Capades has informed him that the ice show has canceled its Lincoln appearance for next year, saying turnouts have declined for each of the past few years.

'A' Shock'

Hoig said Richard Palmer, vice president of Ice Capades, said in a letter: "Our losses the last few years have been substantial, but this year was really a shock to all of us."

Hoig said the letter did not indicate whether the ice show would return in the near future. It as pointed out, however, that the show has returned to other cities where it was previously discontinued.

In other action, the board reelected Chapin as chairman and named Richard White vice chairman and Mrs. George Holyoke secretary.

Hisses, Cheers Signal Mellerdrammers Here

By EARL DYER
Star Staff Writer

The hisses for the villain, cheers for the hero and sighs for the heroine were present in abundance Tuesday night as Lincoln's Theater Inc. previewed its seventh season of summer mellerdrammers.

The Mellerdrammers at the Gaslight (322 So. 9th) officially open for the summer Wednesday night. If Tuesday's preview was a fair sample, the evennings will be mad melees more marked for fun than for sense.

The opening fare consists of two one-actors, done with a fast pace and with the kind of spirit that engenders enthusiastic audience participation.

The audience participated so much Tuesday night that it was hard to make out some of the lines, but nobody seemed to mind.

The performers (one shouldn't call them actors, should one?) displayed substantial zeal, and if the evening wasn't marked by subtlety . . . well, no good mellerdrammer ever is.

Master of Ceremonies Jack Frost may have been the best of the show, with his enthusiastic and sympathetic — to say the least — introductions of the cast of characters.

Stealing some of the scenes were young members of the audience in the front row — including the two small sons of Mrs. Pat Healey, Theater Inc. president. They looked properly horrified much of the time, and threw popcorn indiscriminately at villain and hero alike.

But then mellerdramma depends on its audience participation, and it looks like there'll be plenty of that this summer.

The two plays opening Wednesday night and running through July 1 are "Egad What A Cad, or Virtue Triumphs Over Villainy" and "Dora the Beautiful Dishwasher, or The Heroine Who Cleaned Up."

Nebraska Native To Be Skipper Of Big Carrier

Washington (AP) — Capt. Forrest S. Petersen, one of the 12 pilots in the X15 rocketplane flight team, is about to become skipper of the nuclear powered aircraft carrier, the Enterprise.

Vice Adm. Thomas F. Connolly, deputy chief of naval operations for air, disclosed this Tuesday at a ceremony at which the first X15, among the three that were built, was presented to the Smithsonian Institute.

Petersen, 47, is th son of Mrs. E. L. Petersen of Gibbon, Neb. He was in the X program from 1958 to 1962.

He was vice commander of the Enterprise from 1964 to 1966, and since has been assigned to the office of the chief of naval operations.

The Navy information office at the Pentagon said there has been no announcement of a new position for Petersen or of a change in assignment for the current skipper of the Enterprise, Capt. Kent Lee.

Seven X pilots took part in the ceremonies but Connolly explained that Petersen was absent because "he is about to become commanding officer of the Enterprise."

Accidental Shot At Chadron Kills Floyd Hanson, 59

Chadron (UPI) — Floyd H. Hanson of Lusk, Wyo., was killed in an apparent accidental shooting Tuesday afternoon in a food market parking lot here.

Dawes County Attorney Bevin Bump said the 59-year-old Hanson was sitting in the front seat of his station wagon when the accident occurred.

Bump said two men were examining several guns in the rear of the vehicle. He said one of the weapons apparently went off when the men picked it up.

The bullet struck Hanson in the back of the head and he was reportedly dead when the Chadron Rescue Unit arrived a few minutes after the incident.

Bump identified the men as Louis Taylor and Fred Broberg, both from the Chadron area.

The county attorney identified the gun as a .22 calibre.

He said Broberg was handling the gun when it discharged, striking Hanson.

She received her Master's degree in speech pathology from Colorado State Universi.y.

In Suburbia

Just in case you haven't noticed, more than a third of June already has passed, and we are sure the rest of the month will slip by just as quickly.

For the residents of suburbia, the month has been well occupied so far, and the plans for the remainder of June — and the summer — are so interesting that we are sure tempers will forget much too fast and autumn leaves will be flying before we know it. But instead of thinking about that not-so-far away fall season, we have some exciting current news to tell.

Our first item is the arrival of young Brian James Vittera, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Vittera of Scottsdale, Ariz., who made his initial appearance on Sunday, June 8.

The young man's birth is of more than a little interest to several Lincoln residents including his paternal grandparen.s, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vittera who live at 4140 C; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Howell; the maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Howell; and the paternal great-grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Gibbons, all of Lincoln.

Sunday, June 8, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Houfek were honored at an open house held in observance of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Hosts and hostess for the Sunday afternoon and evening event were Mr. and Mrs. Houfek's children, Nathan, 22, Becky, 17, and Joel, 13. Approximately 130 friends and relatives attended and Mr. and Mrs. Houfek's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Houfek of Highlands, N.J., who were host and hostess in absentia, gave telephone greetings to the honored couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Patton and Vicki, 10, and Jon, eight, are eagerly looking forward to their trip to Kansas City, Mo., on Saturday, June 21. Vicki and Jon are eagerly counting the days because they and their aunt, Mrs. Helen Pierson, will fly to Kansas City while Mr. and Mrs. Patton drive there to meet them. The reason for this unusual travel arrangement is that none of the "fliers" ever has traveled by airplane before, so they decided this was the perfect opportunity to do so.

But the excitement won't be over after they arrive. While they are in Kansas City, Mrs. Patton's stepmother, Mrs. Clara Dieckgrafe of St. Louis, Mo., will join the group before they all go to Ft. Scott, Kan., where they will be the house guests of Mrs. Patton's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Dieckgrafe.

After spending a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dieckgrafe, the travelers will return to Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Clara Dieckgrafe who will be a guest at the Eastborough home of Mr. and Mrs. Patton until Saturday, June 28.

Planning a 10-day vacation to Pennsylvania are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Heilman and children, Robin, five, and Debra, 11, who will leave their Maple Village home on Saturday, June 14, for Ford City, Pa., where they will be the house guests of Mr. Heilman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laird Heilman.

But Mr. Heilman's parents aren't the only relatives they will be visiting. While in Ford City, Mr. and Mrs. Heilman and their family also will have a visit with Mr. Heilman's brothers and sisters-in-law.

Courtesies For Summer Brides-Elect

A July bride-elect was the honored guest recently when Mrs. Carl J. Meinhardt entertained at her home. The bridal courtesy honored Miss Phyllis Bowen whose marriage to Douglas Leslie Anderson will be solemnized on July 26.

Feminine friends of Mr. Anderson's family were invited to the informal dessert supper on Thursday evening, May 29, and presented a personal shower to Miss Bowen.

Honored at a bridal courtesy on Tuesday morning was Miss Geri Jane Livengood, who will become the bride of Larry L. Johnson of Littleton, Colo., on Saturday, June 14.

Entertaining for the bride-to-be was Mrs. Loren Stromer who was hostess at a one-gift shower and coffee at her home.

Afternoon Service

Altar arrangements of white Majestic daisies and stock formed the background in First-Plymouth Congregational Church Sunday afternoon, June 1, for the marriage of Miss Sharon Jean Kyker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Kyker, to George Harold Krauss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Krauss of McCook. Dr. Ford Forsythe read the lines of the service at 2 o'clock.

Slender, floor-length frocks of beige silk veiled with lace in the apricot shade were worn by Miss Mary Ann Liesveld of Rancho Cordova, Calif., the honor attendant, and the bridesmaids, Miss Jane Thompson of Omaha, and Miss Mary Kathryn Kyker of York, niece of the bride.

Fred T. Krauss of Beloit, Kan., served his brother as best man, and the groomsmen were William F. Braun of Denver, Wayne S. Kyker, brother of the birde, and William D. Sutter.

The bride chose imported Chantilly lace and silk organdy in the ivory tone for her wedding gown. A petite ruffle of the lace edged the jewel throatline and cuffed the long sleeves to the lace basque, and the lace was repeated in a scallop motif at the hem of the slim skirt and in appliques on the aisle-wide train. She carried a cascade of daisies and Tropicana roses.

Mr. and Mrs Krauss will reside in Lincoln, where the bride is a senior at the University of Nebraska and a member of Alpha Xi Delta. Mr. Krauss is a graduate of the University and of the College of Law. His fraternity is Sigma Chi.

town talk

Before we open the books on more Swingfest guests and activities we're taking time out to mention a non-Swingfest visitor—he is Richard deBrown of New York City—or perhaps we should say—of Madison Avenue, N.Y., since that is where he spends most of his time. Anyway, Mr. de Brown is a Sunday-to-Thursday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. de Brown, and also is visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace de Brown.

And we can't think of a better time than right now to tell you that Mrs. Thomas Olson (Cynthia Barber) and her three children, Kerstin, Lynn and Tommy, are the current guests of Mrs. Olson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Barber Jr. We hear that Mr. Olson arrives today from Lisco, and after a brief breather he and his family will return home.

* * *

Now for news of Swingfest guests—

Arriving in time for the practice rounds on Wednesday will be Tom Green of Westminster, Colo.; Edward Burke of Imperial, and Richard Hunter of Hastings. They are to be accompanied to Lincoln by Mrs. Green, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Hunter who will have considerable activity of their own since they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gene C. Eaton. Mr. and Mrs. Green, incidentally, are to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eaton.

We already have mentioned that stag dinner scheduled for Thursday evening at the LCC, and we also mentioned a party for the Swingfest wives for which Mrs. Lee Chapin, Mrs. Henry Cech and Mrs. William Rolfsmeier will be hostesses at the home of Mrs. Chapin. Mrs. Eaton and her guests will attend the dinner.

* * *

Then we heard of another 'wives' party —This one will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Durrie whose Swingfest guests will be Mr. and Mrs. George Dudley of Norfolk.

Opening lead — queen of clubs.

Here is another interesting hand from Dorothy Hayden's excellent new book, Winning Declarer Play, just published by Harper and Row.

The deal demonstrates how clear thinking by declarer can solve what appears to be a difficult problem.

South arrives at four spades and West leads the queen of clubs. Declarer wins in dummy with the ace, leads the jack of spades taking East's queen with the ace, cashes the king of clubs, ruffs a club, and then exits with trump, hoping West will be forced to win with the king and return a heart or diamond to one of South's red kings.

But East wins the spade and returns a low heart, putting South to a crucial guess.

If declarer thinks East has the ace and West the queen he should play the king, but if he thinks East has the queen and West the ace, he should play the jack.

Here is how Mrs. Hayden explains what declarer should do in this critical situation:

"It may seem a matter of guesswork, but it isn't. The right play at this point is clearly the jack. Here's the reason: In order to make the hand, you must hold yourself to one diamond loser. As you'll have to play diamonds yourself, it means you'll have to find the diamond ace in East's hand. If East has the diamond ace in addition to the K-Q of spades, he can't possibly have the heart ace or he would have opened the bidding. Your only hope therefore, is that East has the queen, so you put in the jack."

What Mrs. Hayden says in effect is that if the success of a contract depends on finding a particular card in a particular player's hand, you shoudd assume that it is there and act accordingly.

Bride At Tuesday Evening Wedding

Clusters of lighted white candles appointed the chancel of Bethany Lutheran Church in Webster Groves, Mo., Tuesday evening, June 10, for the wedding of Miss Donna Marie Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Larson of Arlington, S.D., and Robert Paul Bogott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bogott of Lincoln. The 7:30 o'clock service was solemnized by the Rev. Roger Kronmann.

Mrs. Pat Treiberg of Ventura, Calif., the matron of honor, and the bridesmatron, Mrs. James Mallette, LeMars, Iowa, wore floor-length frocks of silk in the mint green shade.

Serving Mr. Bogott as best man was Lawrence Abbott of Lincoln, and the groomsman was Merlin Dresher, St. Louis. Seating the guests were Ronald Murashige, Collinsville, Ill., and Lynn Larson, Arlington, S.D.

The bride appeared in a slender, Empire frock of silk worsted in traditional white. Contoured by a crescent neckline, the fitted bodice was overlaid with Chantilly lace which continued over the shoulders into brief sleeves. She wore a mantilla of matching lace, and carried white and yellow daisies centered with a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Bogott will live in St. Louis, where Mr. Bogott, a University of Nebraska graduate, is studying for a Masters degree at Washington University. Mrs. Bogott, a graduate of Augustana College, Sioux Falls, S.D., received her Master's degree this spring from Washington University in St. Louis.

ABBY: you can stay out of reach

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What can be done about people who keep TOUCHING you when they talk to you? This irritates me no end. Even though I may like that person very much, I feel so resentful when they poke, nudge, and hit me to emphasize some point in their conversation. (Oddly enough, more women are guilty of this than men.)

I realize that the toucher probably doesn't even realize she is doing it at the time, but this is of little comfort to me. Is there some diplomatic way to put a stop to it, or must I give up my friendship with such a person?

POKED IN MANHATTAN

DEAR POKED: There is NO way to defend yourself against the annoyance of compulsive touchers, pokers, or nudgers. Either keep out of their reach or stay out of their company altogether.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were not getting along at all well together, so we went to a marriage counselor. He said we ought to straighten OURSELVES out, and suggested we go to a psychiatrist.

Well, the psychiatrist listened to us, and said he didn't think we needed psychiatry, we needed to work out our marital problems, so we went back to this marriage counselor.

He talked to us a while and then said we just weren't right for each other, and we never should have gotten married in the first place. (Wasn't that helpful?) We've been married for nine years, have three children and think our marriage is worth saving. What do you suggest? PILLAR TO POST

DEAR PILLAR: I don't know what kind of "marriage counselor" you went to, but he needs to straighten HIMSELF out. Ask the psychiatrist who told you to see a marriage counselor to recommend one.

DEAR ABBY: As the mother of a 22-year-old daughter, I would like to have some up-to-date information on present day dating customs.

My daughter has been dating a young man for several months. He's a college graduate and has a very good job. He invited her to go skiing, and then informed her that she would have to pay for her own lift fee. She thought this was rather odd, but she paid her own fee.

Then on subsequent dates he told her she should pay her own way.

She told him she thought he was being "cheap." He said she was "ignorant." And they quarreled.

Is the young man correct? Is it the custom now for girls to pay their own way when asked for a date?

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: The gentleman treats the lady, unless they have an "understanding" beforehand, and are saving for their mutual benefit. A man who would ask a girl for a date and then suggest she pay her own way is no gentleman. And a girl, to put up with it must be very hungry for company.

Wylie Leads Drive To Bring Budget Back To General File

Sen. William Wylie of Elgin, warning that he could not vote to enact a budget bill which did not receive full discussion on the floor of the Legislature, won 23-15 consent Tuesday to bring the measure back to general file.

The Legislature Monday had advanced the proposal, LB1421, without debate.

Wylie offered a minor amendment to the bill in order to flesh out his motion to bring it back from second stage consideration for initial debate.

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, who led the successful effort to advance the measure Monday, said Wylie's motion would only delay the session.

The appropriations bill can be amended "promiscuously" on general file with a simple majority vote, Carpenter said. On select file, under ground rules established by the lawmakers, amendment would have required 25 votes.

Part of his purpose in sending the bill forward was "to prevent amendments," Carpenter said.

"Why should anyone be able to amend as important a bill as the budget without 25 votes?"

In any event, Carpenter said, there was intention to enact the bill without full discussion.

Once Wylie's motion gained approval, lawmakers turned aside, on a 14-23 vote, a request to delay debate until next week, then launched into their budget deliberations.

Sen. Clifton Batchelder of Omaha, the only Budget Committee member who declined to sign the appropriations proposal, argued that the bill could be cut to conform to current revenue levels.

Some reductions could be obtained by "passing along inflationary increases" in the cost of higher education to students, he said, presumably through tuition hikes.

Carpenter said approval of Batchelder's motion to return the bill to the committee would only serve to "embarrass" other committee members just because Batchelder "didn't have his way."

The committee has already expressed its assessment of appropriations requirements, Sen. Jules Burbach of Crofton said.

Despite objections to his request, Batchelder said, the spending proposal could be trimmed to meet current revenue levels. He is not, he said, "a stranger in paradise."

The vote on Wylie's motion:

For: Batchelder, Carstens, Danner Elrod, Harsh, Hasebroock, Holmquist, Johnson, Luedtke, Moulton, Moylan, Nore, Pedersen, Schreurs, Simpson, Swanson, Syas, Waldron, Wallwey, Warner, Wenzlaff, Wylie.

Against: Bloom, Budd, Carpenter, Duis, Kennedy, Keyes, Klaver, Knight, Kokes, Mahoney, Marvel, Proud, Robinson, Skarda, Ziebarth.

Not Voting: Adamson, Burbach, Clark, Craft, Kremer, Orme, Reynolds, Schmit, Waldo, Whitney, Wiltse.

Two Fremont Attorneys Ask Reinstatement

Two Fremont men have asked the State Supreme Court to end their one-year suspension from legal practice and declare them "reinstated to practice law," Supreme Court records showed Tuesday.

Fred H. Richards Jr. and Bernard T. Schafersman received the one-year suspension in June of 1968.

Statements from the Court's District Committee on Inquiry and the Nebraska Bar Association's Advisory Committee said the pair had "fully complied with the order of suspension" and recommended reinstatement.

Richards and Schafersman asked that the court set a hearing on the issue for next Monday.

Mileage Marker Project Finished

The State Highway Department has completed the installation of mileage markers along non-interstate highways at one-mile intervals, according to State Engineer Marvin Nuernberger.

The markers, similar to the ones used along the Interstate, indicate the distance from Nebraska's western or southern borders via the highway. If the highway does not cross a state line, the markers indicate the distance to the highway's origin.

Nuernberger said the $69,000 project was financed by he U.S. Department of Transportation.

Fire And Police Pension Plan Held

The Legislature's Retirement Systems Advisory Committee Tuesday held LB922, a bill revising the Lincoln fire and police pension plan.

No opposition to the bill was heard, but spokesmen for both the firemen and policemen asked for time to get a report from their actuaries on the financial impact of the amended version of the bill.

Lincoln attorney David Tews, representing the fire fighters, presented several amendments to the bill and said the city and the firemen and policemen had reached agreements on all but one amendment.

That amendment concerns a proposed increase of from 5% to 7% in employes' contributions to the pension fund. It reads that the contributions should be made until the employe is eligible for retirement.

Tews said the city is wondering if the amendment should be changed to read that contributions are to be made until the employe actually retires. He said the city wants a cost analysis before deciding that point.

The proposed amendments specify that a fireman or policeman who retires at 55 with 21 years service may receive retirement benefits amounting to 50% of his average salary during his last five years of employment.

Tews said agreement was reached on disability benefits. He said an employe could qualify for pension after disability due to a non-duty accident, but any benefits received until age 62 from Social Security, workmen's compensation or an employe health and accident plan would be deducted from the gross pension figure.

Driver License Impoundment Passed

By Associated Press

Two bills among 16 which were put to a final vote in the Legislature Tuesday failed to generate enough support to carry the emergency clause.

The troubled bills included LB719, Omaha Sen. Henry F. Pedersen's measure to permit impoundment of driver licenses for traffic convictions, and Lincoln Sen. Harold D. Simpson's LB1084, requiring county boards to provide short wave radio equipment for sheriffs.

Neither bill was able to muster the 33 votes needed for passage with the emergency clause attached, but met the 25-vote requirement for passage without the emergency clause.

LB719 not only permits impoundment of a driver's license for up to 90 days, but authorizes courts to require traffic law offenders to attend a driver improvement school.

The vote on LB719 was 27-16 with the emergency clause, 26-15 without it.

Radio Equipment

LB1084 requires county boards to purchase a base radio station and short wave radio equipment for installation on a motor vehicle owned by the sheriff. Provision for such equipment is optional in the case of deputies.

The votes on LB1084 were 30-7 with the emergency clause, 29-10 without it.

Also drawing a mixed although approving reception was DeWitt Sen. Willard Waldo's LB443, which requires licensed veterinarians, starting in 1971, to attend annually 16 hours of approved scientific schools, clinics, forums, lectures or veterinary education seminars as a prerequisite to license renewal. The bill passed 32-10.

Adopted 45-0 was a bill, LB597, which eliminates a discrimination loophole in law dealing with the licensing of real estate brokers or salesmen.

Deleted Loophole

Deleted by LB597 is the law provision which permits brokers or salesmen to discriminate because of race, color, national origin or ethnic group or ethnic group in the showing, selling, renting or leasing of real estate if the owner has placed such discriminatory limitations on the real estate.

The bill was sponsored chiefly by Sen. Loran Schmit of David City.

Passed 38-3 was Scottsbluff Sen. Terry Carpenter's LB1012, which requires liquor retailers to maintain records of the documentary proof of age which customers have provided. Such records can be used as mitigating evidence if the retailer is cited for sale to a minor.

Ord Sen. Rudolf Kokes' LB1054, writing into law a joint airport authorities act, was approved 44-0 and goes next to Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann for signature into law. In effect, it permits cities, counties and airport authorities in any combination to join in airport operations.

Bills passed on final reading in the Legislature Tuesday, with votes (E-emergency clause):

LB443 (Waldo, Kremer, Kennedy, Robinson) — Requiring licensed veterinarians to take refresher courses annually as prerequisite for license renewal. 32-10.

LB597 (Schmit, Luedtke) — Deleting from law the provision which permits real estate broker or salesman to discriminate in showing, selling, renting or leasing of real estate if the owner has placed on the real estate such limitations. (E). 45-0.

LB669 (Warner) — Providingthat leases on publicly owned farm lands shall be for a fixed annual cash rent. 42-1.

LB719 (Pedersen) — Permitting impoundment up to 90 days of a driver's license for certain traffic violations, and permitting courts to require offenders to attend a driver improvement school. 26-15.

LB917 (Carpenter) — Increasing from $300 to $400 the maximum burial allowance for welfare recipients, and providing for assistance payments by state warrant directly to assistance recipients. (E). 44-0.

LB1012 (Carpenter) — Requiring liquor retailers to maintain records of those furnishing documentary proof of age for the purpose of liquor purchases, and prescribing what shall constitute mitigating evidence when retailer is charged with sale to a minor. 38-3.

LB1027 (Luedtke) — Authorizing registers of deeds to microfilm certain records, and setting standards for microfilming. (E). 44-0.

LB1054 (Kokes, Marvel, Ziebarth, Elrod) — Enacting a joint airport authorities act which permits cities, counties and airport authorities to join in airport development and operation. (E). 44-0.

LB1084 (Simpson) — Requiring county boards to provide short wave radio equipment for sheriffs, and making optional the provision of such equipment for deputies. 29-10.

LB1110 (For the Governor, by Public Works Committee) — Requiring secretary of state's approval of surety bonds for power district directors, collection and detective agencies. 45-0.

LB1207 (Pedersen) — Revising civil procedure to make an exception to mailing of notice of judgment in certain divorce or separate maintenance cases. (E). 44-0.

LB1254 (Syas) — Authorizing Game Commission to issue Nebraskalander hunting-fishing permits costing $50 for residents, $100 for non-residents. (E). 40-2.

LB1270 (Pedersen, Luedtke) — Permitting a spouse who is absent because of military service to be represented by affidavit in adoption proceedings. (E). 39-0.

LB1347 (Government Committee) — Permitting participating subdivisions to determine how many members shall serve on regional or joint planning commissions. 39-0.

LB1351 (Government Committee) — Removing ceilings on salaries of mayors and councilmen, and prescribing that salaries shall be fixed by the councils. (E). 39-2.

LB1370 (Government Committee) — Reducing from three-fifths to simple majority the voter approval requirement for public building construction by second class cities and villages, and making elections unnecessary under certain circumstances. 35-4.

Budget Proposal For Construction Projects Slated

The Budget Committee's appropriations recommendations for capital construction projects during the 1969-71 fiscal biennium will be forthcoming Wednesday, Sen. Richard Marvel of Hastings said Tuesday.

Originally, the committee had planned to present its capital constrction proposal in bill form to the Legislature on Tuesday.

Marvel said the recommendations will not vary substantially from total dollar recommendations presented to the Legislature by Gov. Norbert Tiemann.

Tiemann proposed capital construction projects costing $15.4 million.

Resolution Urges Endorsement Of Area Office Plan

By Associated Press

Sen. Lester Harsh of McCook introduced a resolution in the Legislature Tuesday endorsing a regional office concept for providing governmental services to Nebraskans.

The resolution, No. 59, makes reference to an "Outstate Office Study for Nebraska State Government," a document submitted to the Legislature earlier by the executive branch of government.

The document advocated, in effect, that when state government agencies establish outstate offices or service centers, they be grouped at certain locations.

The study explored a five-office plan, a six-office plan and a seven-office plan.

Sen. Harsh's resolution calls for specific endorsement of a seven-office plan calling for outstate centers at Ainsworth, McCook, Norfolk, North Platte, Omaha, the Scottsbluff-Gering area, and the tri-city area (Kearney, Grand Island, Hastings).

24-Hour Flag Display Bill Hits Snag

By Associated Press

A bill which would have required every public building in Nebraska to fly the American flag 24 hours a day until the Vietnam war ends was derailed at least momentarily in the Legislature Tuesday.

The bill, LB1371, sponsored by State Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, would require that any public building over which the flag is flown have the flag flown 24 hours a day.

Lights would have to be furnished to illuminate the flag.

It was scheduled for a final vote in the Legislature Tuesday, but the vote was delayed when the lawmakers decided to look at an amendment proposed by State Sen. Wayne Schreurs of Seward.

The proposed amendment would have the bill apply only to one public building in each town.

"I hope no one thinks I'm unpatriotic," said Schreurs, "but perhaps we should spend money on better things than buying a lot of lights."

Schreurs later said he thought the bill conflicts with federal law and said he is having State Adjutant General Lyle Welch examine the situation. The matter then was laid over until Wednesday.

Carpenter objected to the move, saying Schreurs and the other "had many days to look at this bill. In this day and age we now live in, no expenditure of money to display the flag could be too much."

Carpenter said the bill only imposed a "moral responsibility" on local governments to have the flag flown, since there is no penalty clause in it.

School Board Seeks $164,325 For 2 Programs

By LUCILLE HOWARD
Star Staff Writer

Applications for a total of $164,325 in federal funds to operate a summer employment program and a computer instructional program were approved by the Lincoln Board of Education Tuesday.

Already approved by the U.S. Office of Education was a $16,898 grant for a special summer training project for evaluators of instructional programs, board members were told.

Some 40 school district administrators will be selected to participate in the 10-day training session on the techniques of program evaluation, Supt. John Prasch reported. The conferees will design evaluation instruments and apply them to instructional programs during the special session.

4-1 Approval

A $115,075 grant to finance the third year of Project Admire (Assistance for Decision-Making through Information Retrieval in Education) received approval of the board in a 4-1 vote with board member Ed Copple dissenting.

The third year of the computer project, operated in cooperation with Educational Service Unit 6, will smphasize actual student instruction in which the computer will be used as a problem-solving instrument, Prasch said.

Computer services, offered to participating school districts from the beginning of the project, also will be continued. Last year computer application in the schools was confined to demonstration use.

Also Approved

Board members also approved an application for $59,250 in federal funds to employ 140 youths enrolled in the Neighborhood Youth Corps. The low-income boys and girls earn $1.30 per hour and may work a maximum of 26 hours per week during the 10-week period.

In other business Tuesday Prasch announced the possibility of a third party contract with the State Department of Education to hire a rehabilitation counselor for work with mentally retarded children in the Lincoln school district. The counselor would assist in the provision of vocational training for retarded youths and coordinate the program with the Rehabilitation Division's on-the-job training and placement services.

The board unanimously approved final plans for the six-classroom addition to Maude Rousseau School. The addition will include four teacher workrooms and a central media center.

$320,000 Estimate

Architect Ken Clark estimated the cost of the addition at $320,000. Bids will be taken in about one month, it was agreed.

Associate Supt. Dr. Robert Den Hartog explained that the general fund of the school district had a balance of more than $4 million at the end of May, some $3 million more than at the same time last year, because of advanced tax collections and the schedule of state aid payments.

Den Hartog told the board that for this year only it will appear that the district has collected 1½ years' taxes in one fiscal year. The district will not be getting any more money, he said, but has received it at different intervals than previously.

Had Shown Deficit

He pointed out that as recently as last December, the general fund showed a deficit because of the late state aid payment.

In spite of bookkeeping projections indicating that the district will show a deficit in the bond sinking fund at the end of the 1968-69 fiscal year and by the end of the 1969-70 fiscal year, board members agreed not to increase the separate mill levy for the fund.

Den Hartog said that due to the advanced tax collections he believes that actual deficits will not be present. And by 1971-72, he calculates having a $.5 million excess in the fund so that the district might be able to lower the mill levy tax.

In other action the board:

—Approved plans for improvements at Seacrest Stadium, including paving behind the bleachers and some kind of crowd control device behind the seating.

—Directed that a proposal for an all-weather track at Seacrest Stadium be presented to the board for its consideration sometime this summer.

—Agreed to seek community action in getting the Legislature's committee amendments deleted from the original LB979 which divides the state into seven areas for purposes of a comprehensive community college system.

—Approved a salary schedule for employes of the Lincoln Vocational Technical School set at the same level as other district certificated employes plus provisions for non-certificated persons and a quarter system schedule for the technical school.

—Approved expenditure of some $30,000 for classroom furniture from Hoover Brothers of Kansas City, Mo., without taking bids.

Ed Board Names Sanders To New Administrative Post

James H. Sanders of Iowa City, Iowa, Tuesday was named to the new position of administrative assistant for planning and evaluation by the Lincoln Board of Education.

Three new principals were appointed and three elementary principals were reassigned to different buildings in other action by the school board.

Sanders, who expects to receive his Ph.D. from the University of Iowa in August, will serve on the superintendent's staff 12-month contract.

Hired at a salary of $15,100, Sanders, 32, will join the staff Aug. 18.

Board members also approved the appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth Dillon, a former Grand Island school staff member, as director of staff development. Mrs. Dillon was hired at a salary of $16,950.

Appointments to principalships included:

—Delbert Emerson, former elementary principal in Ralston to principal of Arnold School.

Falling Combine Injures Labrie, 52

Giltner (UPI) — Glenn Labrie, 52, was hospitalized in satisfactory condition at the Aurora Memorial Hospital Tuesday morning after being injured in a farm accident.

Authorities said Labrie was working on his combine at his farm home two miles west of here when the combine fell on top of him.

County Okays New Pay Plan

Lancaster County employes will receive pay checks every two weeks beginning July 1 instead of once a month.

Lancaster County Commissioners Tuesday approved the new pay periods after County Clerk Carl Hartman informed them that all county officials were in favor of the change.

He said that the county was about the only agency in the area which pays only once a month and indicated that the cost would "not be excessive."

Hartman estimated that it would cost about $1,000 more each month for data processing and approximately $500 annually for warrants and necessary supplies.

POSTCARD by Stan Delaplane

Rose with the rosy dawn. Birds atwitter. Kittens chasing twigs and simply murdering them.

All hands slugabed. In the downy. Except me. I am an early bird. By noon I've shot my bolt. Stack arms. Fall out. Police the area and pick up all cigarette butts.

The topless business goes on and on in the part of San Francisco that used to be the wicked Barbary Coast.

Hard to figure out why people will spend a couple of hours looking at the same scene. I mean there's no plot.

Nonetheless the bare brisket business is still brisk. We drove through the neon belt the other night — windshield wipers going for the fog was in.

Quite a mob going up and down the street. Trying to decide which place to go in and look.

☆ ☆ ☆

I had a hand in the thing when I was asking impertinent questions for the daily reader.

A bare top was unusual in those simple days. And one girl making a big thing of it was Evelyn — "The $50,000 Treasure Chest Girl."

A London paper wired me: "Evelyn your city insured her bust for $50,000 with Lloyd's why?"

It was a good question. And they offered a good price for the answer.

☆ ☆ ☆

I located the insured at her hotel. A well set up girl. Her manager explained it all in fascinating show biz language.

He said: "Evelyn felt she should insure her bosom because she is always worried if she should lose one or the other and ruin her career. You know how it is."

Well, I didn't know how it was. I didn't see how she could suffer such a loss. Unless she started performing in front of an audience of crocodiles.

He said: "In her business everything depends on the chesterfield." (He patted his chest with both hands to indicate the "chesterfield.")

"When the act starts, she comes out and does a little tap dance.

"With a cane and high hat. Like Fred Astaire, see?

"She sings, 'A little of this and a little of that. And I see you're looking at my hat.'"

He said: "That's the laugh, see? Because all eyes are on the chesterfield."

☆ ☆ ☆

The London paper paid well. The story went out on the wires. People read it and said: "Did you see about that girl who insured her bust for $50,000? What will they think of next?"

So far as I know all went well. Evelyn got yards of publicity — it never hurts to let people know your assets have a cash value.

Lloyd's of London was happy. Never had to toll the bell for a sunken chesterfield.

A lot of other girls insured their bosoms. Evelyn used to sue them. And everybody got publicity.

I got a splendid education. "Why should you get a raise?" said the city editor. "Look at the kind of stories I'm giving you."

☆ ☆ ☆

I don't suppose we'd send a reporter now if you had a parade of topless chicks.

The chesterfield is not news. It is standard equipment with the model. Not an extra.

"In my business," Evelyn told me, "what we have is all up front. That's why I wanted insurance."

She braced her shoulders and gave her front a critical look.

She said: "If I should lose anything, it would be the end of my acting career."

☆ ☆ ☆

"Give me that insured bosom story as soon as you can," said the city editor. Then get down to the Palace Hotel and do the luncheon meeting of that bird watchers convention."

(Said my grandfather: "All in a day's work. As the hunter said when the bear ate him.")

Decision Authority Proposed For Communications Board

By United Press International

A bill to make the State Telecommunications Board a statutory body with decision-making powers was introduced in the Legislature after some successful floor maneuvering by its sponsors.

The measure, LB1422, sponsored chiefly by State Sen. Herb Duis of Gothenburg, would elevate the present board from its current advisory status to one which would have powers similar to the State Board of Education or the State Game Commission.

Duis said the board needs to have decision-making powers because the present advisory board has been powerless to do anything to get the state telecommunications system underway.

"Nobody's done anything," he said. "We want the director to do something. The governor hasn't done anything to get it going."

But State Sen. Henry F. Pedersen Jr. of Omaha objected to the introduction. He said control over the telecommunications division should remain in the hands of the governor.

Pedersen's objection then prompted Duis to ask for a suspension of the Legislature's rules so the bill could be introduced.

Under the Legislature's rules, it takes unanimous consent to allow a bill to be introduced after the 90th legislative day unless the rules are suspended by a vote of 33 of its members.

NEW.. "SLEEP + ASPIRIN"

tablets help you

Pop right off to Sound, Safe Sleep

WITHOUT NARCOTIC SLEEPING PILLS

New York, N.Y. (Special) . . . A New York chemist has perfected a remarkable "Asper-Sleep" formula which unites in one small tablet 3 safe aids to sound, refreshing sleep. No other sleeping tablets offer so much comfort . . . yet are not habit-forming!

Never before has there been such a combination to help you solve the problem of sleeplessness—to bring restful natural-like slumber . . . without addictive drugs. No prescription is needed — just ask for "Asper-Sleep Tablets". For 100% safe sleep take as directed.

The reason you can fall asleep so fast and sleep like a log is that each Asper-Sleep tablet contains these 3 ingredients:

(1) an anti-histamine which doctors have proved as effective as the usual dose of phenobarbitol . . . yet Asper-Sleep is mild and safe.

(2) A sedative with gentle tranquilizing aid to invite mental calm.

(3) Last but not least, Asper-Sleep contains analgesic, pain-relieving aspirin. This curbs the discomforts of headaches, colds, aches, and other conditions for which aspirin is famous . . . including the minor aches and pains of arthritis and rheumatism.

So get your sleep tonight without the depressing after-effects of narcotic drugs. Asper-Sleep contains no barbiturates, no narcotics. You pop off to sleep and wake up "bright-eyed and bushy-tailed", not dull or dopey. During the night you are relaxed, yet responsive to emergencies.

Money back guarantee: Unless Asper-Sleep brings you better, faster, more natural sleep than any sleeping tablet you have ever taken . . . return the partly used bottle and get all your money back. Ask for Asper-Sleep at druggists. 89¢.

One letter simply stands for another in this example, A is used for the three L's X for the two O's etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you.

Records Plentiful

New York (UPI) — Records for most entries and most prize money already have been set in preliminaries to the 1969 U.S. Open Golf Championship.

How many more will fall at Houston this week?

The starting field of 150 includes Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer, who already hold a bundle of records. And nobody but nobody discounts the younger, hungrier set.

"I think the 72-hole record of 275 will stand up," says P. J. Boatwright of the U.S. Golf Association. "The course might play better than that with easy pin placements but we're not trying to make it easy."

Nicklaus set the record of 275 with tough pin placements at Springfield, N.J., in 1967 and Trevino tied it at Rochester, N.Y., only last year with pins re-set each round by a typically stern USGA official.

Trevino Alone

Furthermore, Trevino became the only player in the tournament's history to record all four rounds in the 60's with 69-68-69-69 en route to his four-stroke victory.

The money has been boosted by $10,000 to a total of $200,000 but the top prize remains $30,000.

The entries were up from 3,007 in 1968 to 3,447 this year.

Now for other records that'll be under fire from Thursday through Sunday:

Low nine holes — 30 by Ken Venturi going out on third round in 1964; Palmer going out on fourth round in 1960; Jimmy McHale on first nine of third round in 1947.

Low 18 — 64 by Lee Mackey in first round of 1960, Tommy Jacobs in second round of 1964, Rives McBee in second round 1966.

Low first 36 — 135 by Bert Yancey in 1968, Mike Souchak in 1960.

Low first 54 — 205 by Bert Yancey in 1968.

Low last 36 — 136 by Ken Venturi in 1964, Gene Sarazen in 1932, Cary Middlecoff in 1957.

Low last 54 — 204 by Jack Nicklaus in 1967.

Best finish by champion — 65 by Nicklaus in 1967, Palmer in 1960.

Lowest amateur score — 282 by Nicklaus in 1960.

Champions who led all the way — Ben Hogan in 1953, Jim Barnes in 1921, Walter Hagen in 1914.

Best Comebacks

Best comebacks by winner — Jack Fleck was nine strokes back at 18 in 1955; Palmer in 1960 and Olin Dutra in 1938 were eight shots back at 36; Gene Sarazen was seven back at 44 in 1932; Palmer trailed by seven at the end of 54 in 1960; Billy Casper trailed by seven at the end of 63 in 1966, rallied with a 32 to tie Palmer and won the playoff.

Best start by winner — 67 by Ben Hogan in 1948 and 1953.

Most victories — Willie Anderson, Bobby Jones and Ben Hogan each won four times.

Most times runnerup — Arnold Palmer, Bobby Jones and Sam Snead were second four times each.

Biggest victory margin — 11 shots by Willie Smith in 1899.

Oldest winner — Ted Ray in 1920 was 43 years, four months and 16 days old; Julius Boros was 26 days younger when he won his second title in 1963.

Youngest winner — John J. McDermott was 19 years, 10 months and 14 days old when he won in 1911 but it took some 76 years to clear the record. Horace Rawlins, winner of the first Open in 1895 long was thought to be the toughest champ but it turns out he was an old codger of 21.

LEE TREVINO NOT WORRIED

Hogan In 1951 Last Repeater

. . . 'NOT AFRAID OF ANYBODY'

Houston (AP) — The challenge of becoming the first golfer to win successive Open titles since Ben Hogan pulled the feat in 1950-51 fails to shake up the tacos in Lee Trevino's Mexican-attuned stomach.

"I don't get jumped up too much for any tournament," the loquatious Latin said Tuesday after checking in at the Champions Club for defense of his U.S. title.

"I'm not afraid of anybody and yet I'm afraid of everybody. I leave it all to the Man Upstairs. He has got it all figured out anyhow. I go out and play as well as I can and hope for the best.

"I'll tell you this. If I come up to the finishing holes Sunday in a good position, I know I can win."

Trevino, 29, a self-styled one-time hustler who burst upon the big time golfing scene a couple of years ago, flew into Houston Tuesday from his home in El Paso, Tex., after firing a 65 in an exhibition Monday in Gary, Ind.

He was full of exuberance and words, which he hopes to translate into golf shots Thursday when he tees off against 149 rivals in what is rated the toughest and most prestigious tournament in golf.

"I spent a couple of hours last night at home putting some weight in my clubheads," he said. "I had rewrapped most of the clubs and they were too heavy at the handles, I may have to do some more work on them. They now weigh 16½ ounces and they should be around 14½.

"I like the course. Last year in the Houston Champions International I had a two-shot lead over Roberto de Vicenzo with three holes to play, and I blew it.

"I don't intend to blow it if I get in that position this time."

Trevino, who used to make eating money by using a pop bottle instead of a club to outplay suckers, said he feels the 6,967 yard, par 70 Cypress Creek layout — with its ten water holes, thick clumps of trees, sand and snakes — is patterned for his game.

"I am a fade hitter and this is a faders' course because Jack Burke and Jimmy Demaret, who designed it, are faders."

The ebulent Mexican-American said, "Only two holes are hook holes — the dogleg first and 10th — and the doglegs are too far out to matter."

Most of the early arrivals — Bill Casper, Julius Boros and Masters champion George Archer — said they were surprised to find the rough so unmenacing, scoring, they predicted would be low.

The happy-go-lucky, copper skinned Texan, who admits his Open victory last year will be worth $1 million before the benefits expire, paid tribute to his chief rivals, all of whom tested the champions course in humid, 90-degree weather.

"Arnold Palmer is the king of golf," he said. "Bill Casper is the best golfer in the world. Gary Player is the toughest competitor I ever saw. He never loses his concentration

"And old man-river — Julius Boros — just keeps rolling along. They're all tough, but I can't worry about them. I'm not nervous. Somebody else bigger than me is pulling the strings."

Hinds In Commanding Lead

. . . THURMAN REPEATS 79 TO GRAB 13-STROKE ADVANTAGE

By KENT SAVERY
Star Sports Writer

Thurman Hinds virtually wrapped up the 1969 Boys Junior City golf championship when he fired a second straight 79 at Holmes Park Tuesday to grab a commanding 13-stroke lead over his nearest rivals.

It appears now little short of disaster could prevent the 15-year-old East High student from capturing his first City Junior championship.

Hinds' 36-hole total of 158 puts him far ahead of Steve Harris and Mike Aldrich who are tied at 171.

And the likelihood of Hinds blowing that big a lead nearly disappears when you consider the tournament moves to his home course — the Hillcrest Country Club — for today's third round.

Thurman says he hasn't shot over 88 at HCC this season and he'd have to do much worse than that to lose his front-running position.

After three-putting the par-4 second hole for a double-bogey 6 Thurman settled down, finishing the round with a birdie, 10 pars, and six bogeys while putting together his 39-40—79 total, seven over par.

Thurman got his birdie on the par-5 eighth where he chipped to within four feet of the cup and sank his putt for a four.

A big battle shapes up for second place with many youngsters still having a shot at it.

Trailing Hinds, Harris and Aldrich are Tom Smith at 172 and Greg Sutton and Rennie Sasse at 173. A host of others are still within striking distance.

Sasse, after a poor start with a 92 at the Lincoln Country Club Monday, turned in an 81 Tuesday to charge into contention. The 81 has been bettered only by Hinds' two 79s.

The field of some 100 youngsters has been broken down into nine flights for today's third round at HCC and Thursday's windup at Pioneers.

The flight breakdown by scores and today's tee-off times are as follows:

Championship—158-182, 8:34-9:09 a.m.
First—183-188, 8:06-8:27.
Second—189-195, 7:45-7:59.

Astros' J. Alou Is Hospitalized With Concussion

Houston (AP) — Left fielder Jesus Alou of the Houston Astros was hospitalized with a severe concussion Tuesday night following a jarring collision with shortstop Hector Torres in a game against Pittsburgh.

Alou, knocked unconscious in the collision under a fly ball hit by the Pirates' Al Oliver, swallowed his tongue. Pittsburgh trainer Tony Bartirome pulled it from the player's throat, probably saving his life. Oliver's drive went for an inside-the-park homer.

Both players were carried off the field on stretchers and rushed to a Houston hospital.

The extent of Torres' injuries was not immediately ascertained.

Softball Leaders Almost Upset

King's Food Hosts, leaders league, came within six outs of their first loss of the year Tuesday night before rallying for three runs in the bottom of the sixth inning for a 3-1 victory over Flynn's Motor City at Ballard Field.

In the opener, Citizens' State Bank edged Bob's Tavern, 1-0, on a three-hitter by John Laird. Ron Goldenstein had 3-for-3 and scored the only run on a ground out by Bob Heffelfinger.

Six Added To Hockey Hall Of Fame

Montreal (AP) — The National Hockey League's Hall of Fame committee added six new names Tuesday to its already extensive honor rolls — four in the player category and two at the builder level.

Honored as outstanding players were Sid Abel, general manager of Detroit Red Wings; Leonard "Red" Kelly, until recently coach of the Los Angeles Kings; Bryan Hextall, a former forward with the New York Rangers, and the late Roy Worters, a goaltender with the now-defunct New York Americans.

The builders are Bruce Norris, current president of the Red Wings, and Al Leader, recently retired as president of the Western Hockey League.

Abel, 51, was renowned as a player, captain, all-star, Hart Trophy winner, coach and general manager of the Red Wings since he joined professional ranks in 1938. He is a native of Melville, Sask.

Ralston, Taylor Struggle 105 Minutes In Tourney

Bristol, England (AP) — Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., and Roger Taylor of Britain played a set of tennis lasting 38 games and 105 minutes Tuesday night in a tough tuneup for Wimbledon.

The marathon duel occurred in the second round of the West of England Open Championships.

Taylor eventually won the set 20-18 after Ralston had saved 10 set points.

The American leveled the match by taking the second set 6-2 and the tournament referee then called off play until Wednesday. A heavy dew had settled on the grass court and both players fell several times.

Cliff Richey, U.S. Davis Cup star from San Angelo, Tex., produced one of the upsets of the day by downing Ray Moore of South Africa 6-0, 7-5.

Arthur Ashe of Green Springs, Va., overcame Alex Olmedo, Peruvian-born star of Los Angeles, 6-4, 6-4.

Clark Graebner of New York, hammered 41-year-old Australian Bob Howe 6-1, 6-3.

Stan Smith of Los Angeles had a comfortable 6-3, 6-2 victory over W. Ngodrella of France.

Rod Laver of Australia, top favorite for this tournament and for Wimbledon, came straight from the airport to defeat Zlatko Ivancic of Yugoslavia 6-0, 6-4 in 32 minutes.

His fellow professional, Ken Rosewall, who lost to Laver in the final of the French championships last Saturday, also was in winning form. He downed Ron Holmberg of Highland Falls, N.Y., 7-5, 6-2.

Dick Crealy, the fast improving Australian, upset touring professional Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., 2-6, 8-6, 6-4.

Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., reigning Wimbledon women's champion, defeated South Africa's Esme Emanuel 6-2, 6-2 in the second round of the women's singles.

Another strong contender for Wimbledon, Mrs. Margaret Court of Australia, played powerful tennis to crush Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego, Calif., 6-2, 6-1.

Dick Railsback Ruled Ineligible For NCAA Finals

Los Angeles (AP) — Dick Railsback of UCLA, the defending National AAU and Pacific-8 pole vault champion, was declared ineligible for the national collegiate finals Tuesday by UCLA's faculty representative to the NCAA.

Railsback would have been in his last year of competition at UCLA last season when an exploding pole broke his hand early in the campaign. The conference allowed Railsback to sit out last year and compete this year.

"The NCAA eligibility committee was asked to grant a similar waiver so he could compete in the national meet but it was denied," said Jacobs.

Morey, Hyndman Lead 15 Americans In British Golf

Hoylake, England (AP) — Dale Morey and Bill Hyndman III two former United States Walker Cuppers, led 13 other Americans into the third day's play of the British Amateur Golf Championship over Hoylake's punishing links on the edge of the Irish Sea.

Morey, 50, from High Point, N.C., was 2 down after nine holes against Neil Croonquist of Minneapolis, Minn., and then suddenly hit a hot streak on this course which is celebrating its centenary.

He birdied the 10th to win that one and squared the match on the 13th. Then Morey sank a 30-footer to go 1 up at the 14th on a birdie, canned one from six feet at the long 16th for another birdie and then potted a putt from 17 feet for a third to close out the match.

Hyndman, of Huntingdon Valley, Pa., now 53 but still one of the best drivers in amateur golf, had his troubles against 29-year-old Liam Higgins, the Irish international, before winning, 2 up.

Dick Davis of Huntington Harbor, Calif., who won the title over this 6,950-yard lay out in 1962, went into the third round with a 5 and 4 victory over Ian Bradshaw of Ireland.

Morey and Bob Falkenburg of Los Angeles, Calif., who now lives in Brazil, also went into the third round. Falkenburg, suffering from a back injury and playing with a flat swing, defeated Mike Bill of England 3 and 2.

The other Americans still chasing this title — first played for in 1885 are in the second round.

It was over this course that the legendary Bob Jones won one of his championships in his grand slam year of 1930 — the year when he collared the British Amateur and Open and the U.S. Amateur and Open.

Pete Bostwick, 34-year old stockbroker from Locust Valley, N.Y. was among the Americans who went into the second round with a 4 and 3 victory over Les Hamilton of San Jose, Calif.

Bostwick is rated one of the "sleepers" in this field. He won the world court tennis championship in Manchester three weeks ago and has that competitive urge needed in a championship like this one.

Other Americans through to the second round are Boyd O'Donnell of La Costa, Calif., Hunter McDonald of Southfield, Mich., Dr. James Crawford of Winston-Salem, N.C.; Bob Timbrook of Columis, Ind.; Warren Vanderbush of Closter, N.J.; Peter Zaccagnino of Hartford, Conn.; Pete Jacobi of Long Island, N.Y.; Lt. J C. Oliver of Valdosta, Ga.; Harry Welch of Salisbury, N.C., and Woodward Millen of Piping Rock, N.Y.

Defending champion Michael Bonallack of England scrambled to a 1 up victory over Mike Edwards of England. Andrew Forrester of England pulled off one of the upsets by defeating Gordon Cosh of Scotland-British Walker Cupper.

Late Homers Propel Cubs To 3-1 Victory

. . . CARDINALS NIP CINCY

By Associated Press

Pinch hitter Willie Smith and Ron Santo slammed eighth-inning home runs Tuesday night, powering the Chicago Cubs to a 3-1 victory over Atlanta in a battle of the National League's division leaders.

Reggie Jackson doubled home the tying run and scored on Danny Cater's two-out single in the seventh inning, leading the Oakland Athletics to a 6-4 victory over the Washington Senators.

Vada Pinson's eighth inning double scored Lou Brock with the deciding run as the St. Louis Cardinals and Bob Gibson edged the Cincinnati Reds 5-4.

Curt Flood made a spectacular, leaping catch of Ted Savage's drive against the center field wall to end the game with the tying run on second.

Paul Blair and Boog Powell continuing their hot hitting streaks, combined to drive in seven runs and lead the Baltimore Orioles to an 11-4 victory over the California Angels.

Blair, with two doubles and a single, drove in four runs to give him 10 RBI in the last four games while Powell increased his total to 32 in the last 26 games with a three-run homer.

Reliever Dave Wickersham pitched out of a none-out jam in the ninth inning, stranding the tying run on third base and preserving Kansas City's 7-6 victory over the New York Yankees.

Lou Piniella drove in four Kansas City runs with a first inning double and a bases-loaded single in the seventh.

Harmon Killebrew tripled home two runs and scored on a single in the third inning as Minnesota erupted for five runs and went on to beat Boston 6-2.

Marty Martinez drove in three runs, leading the Houston Astros to a 7-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Carlos May drove in four runs with two doubles and a single and Ed Herrmann cracked a two-run homer as the Chicago White Sox defeated Cleveland 9-5 to break a five-game losing streak.

Earl Wilson and two relief pitchers combined for a six-hitter as the Detroit Tigers defeated the Seattle Pilots 5-0.

Ted Sizemore's run-scoring single with two out and the bases loaded in the ninth inning gave the Los Angeles Dodgers a 2-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Tommie Agee hit two home runs and Cleon Jones drilled a three-run homer as the New York Mets extended their winning streak to 11 games — longest in the majors this season — with a 9-4 romp over the San Francisco Giants.

Montreal and San Diego were tied 4-4 after six innings.

Mustangs Intrasquad Game Set

Sioux City, Iowa (UPI) — The Omaha Mustang football team will play a full-scale game condition intra-squad contest in Sioux City, Iowa, on Aug. 9.

Announcement of the contest, set for a 7:30 p.m. start at Roberts Stadium, came during a news conference attended by the sponsoring Sioux City Baseball Association and Mustang representatives.

The baseball association will utilize the contest to raise funds for its program for boys 10 to 18, playing in three leagues. Tickets at $2 each went on sale throughout the Sioux City area Tuesday.

The game will mark the return of Mustang Coach Don Fleming to the Sioux City sports scene. Fleming left the head football position at Heelan High School in March after a 14-year stint to become the head coach of the Mustangs.

Another familiar face will be on the playing field for the contest. The Mustangs Tuesday announced the signing of Gary Pettitt, 6-1, 185-pound split end who was graduated this year from Morningside College where he earned All North Central Conference honors in football and basketball. He also was the North Central's pole vault champ with a mark of 15-7¼.

Pettitt set a conference reception record last year when he hauled in 52 passes in league play. He caught 68 passes during the season.

'Acres' Idea Catching On

Enrollment in the Game Commission's NEBRASKAland Acres for Wildlife program has jumped to 149 members and 187 acres with the addition of 28 members from Silver Creek on May 29. The 7th and 8th Grade brought a total of 42 acres into the program. To qualify, enrolees must arrange for an acre of land each to be used strictly for wildlife habitat for at least one year.

Work on buildings at the Grand Island Road Ranch is about 90 percent completed, and laying of asphalt on roads in the area should be finished this week. Electrical work is expected to start soon . . .

The next meeting of the Game Commission will be held at the State Capitol at 11 a.m. Friday, June 20 . . .

Fingerling walleye are being stocked by Game Commission technicians at Branched Oak Lake near Raymond and Rockford Lake near Beatrice . . .

Two Rivers State Recreation Area handled 633 fishermen at the Trout Lake on Memorial Day and more than 1,823 anglers during the three-day weekend. A total of 21,075 fishermen used the lake during April and May . . .

Phils Lose Short For Rest Of 1969

Philadelphia (AP) — As though things aren't tough enough for the Philadelphia Phillies with an eight-game losing streak, they have lost their best pitcher for the season.

Chris Short, a 19-game winner last year and considered by many the top left hander in the National League, will undergo surgery this week for removal of a herniated disc in his back.

The operation is the latest in a series of misfortunes which have befallen the 31-year-old pitcher in recent seasons. He was out for a number of weeks in 1967, when he posted a 9-11 record, but came back last season to win 19 games for the seventh-place Phillies.

A club spokesman said Short will reenter Temple University Hospital Thursday or Friday for removal of the disc from the lumbar region of his back. He had been in the hospital off and on since the season started for treatment of the back condition.

Dr. Frederick Murtaugh, a neurosurgeon who last year performed a similar operation on infielder Bobby Wine, is scheduled to perform the surgery. Wine is back in action, now with the Montreal Expos.

Gold Cup Preview On Tap?

Omaha — Ak-Sar-Ben racing fans may get a preview of the $40,000-added Omaha Gold Cup Handicap this Saturday.

The $20,000-added Ak-Sar-Ben 4-H Handicap should bring out the top three-year-olds on the grounds for the mile and 70 yard test. Possible nominations include Bravoria, owned by Eileen Cascio of Bellevue and Dorothy Johnson of Omaha; Rush Date and Golden Space, owned by Marion H. Van Berg of Columbus; Kem Jr., owned by Mike Kemling of Aurora; and Two Bobbs, owned by Ken Opstein of South Sioux City.

Bravoria has won two of three Ak-Sar-Ben races, including the $20,000-added His Majesty's Council Handicap.

A possible newcomer is Happy Intellectual, owned by Happy Valley Farm of Jacksonville, Fla.

Friday's feature will be the $10,000-added Ak-Sar-Ben Lassies Stakes for Nebraska-bred two-year-old fillies. Topping the list of 76 eligibles is Miss The Road, owned by Paul Kemling of Aurora.

Thursday's topper is the Cornhusker Prep, a preliminary to the $50,000-added Cornhusker Handicap to be run on June 21. Wayside Inn, owned by Jack Albert, is on the grounds and may seek a repeat title.

Trainer Jack Van Berg is nearing the record he set last year for wins by a trainer. With 20 days still remaining in the meeting, Van Berg has 21 wins, 8 short of the record.

Vale of Tears, owned by Mrs. Raymond Bauer of Omaha, showed his return to the form that won him more than $66,700 last year. With L. J. Durousseau, the leading jockey, in the saddle, Vale of Tears streaked to a record 1:07 2-5 last Saturday in the six furlong $20,000-added J. E. Davidson Memorial Handicap. The 1:07 2-5 equals the world's record for six furlongs.

Kent Mahoney doubled home three runs in the four-run fifth frame to ice a 7-2 National Bank of Commerce victory over Gerry's in Legion Junior baseball play at Sherman Field Tuesday night.

Variety Characteristic Of Nebraska Hunting

. . . NATION'S MIXED-BAG CAPITAL

Hunting has been a tradition among Nebraskans from the first pioneer who went afield to feed his family to today's leisure-time sportsman who hunts for relaxation. While quantity was the strong suit of Nebraska hunting in the early days, variety characterizes it today.

Billed as the nation's mixed-bag capital, Nebraska is the home of four species of upland game birds, two species of deer, antelope, wild turkey, and small game species such as rabbits and squirrels. Sand Hills lakes, the rainwater basins in the south-central part of the state, and the river systems draw ducks and geese during their migrations and offer additional sport.

During 1968, more than 149,000 resident hunting permits were sold, giving Nebraskans many hours of recreation. The state's hunting resources also attracted thousands of nonresident hunters and their dollars.

Private owners hold 97 percent of Nebraska's land, and their use of it is the key to game populations and hunting opportunities. Trends toward "clean" farming have destroyed much of the wildlife habitant on Nebraska's landscape, and expirations of soil bank contracts have taken many acres away from game animals, and returned them to cropland.

Fortunately, increasing recognition has been given to wildlife as a resource and product of the land in new federal programs such as the Cropland Adjustment Program, which makes provisions for extra payments for allowing public access to land and for improving habitat. During 1966 and 1967, more than 115,000 acres were opened for public hunting under provisions of the program, and another 66,000 were maintained as wildlife cover without public access.

Introduction of new game species is another method of increasing hunting opportunities in the state. Notable past successes are the ring-necked pheasant and Merriam's wild turkey. A prime area for introduction of a new species is the unbroken short grass plains of western Nebraska, where broad expanses of countryside are left undisturbed by man and are without native game birds.

Another hunting resource that remains untapped in Nebraska is the mourning dove. If hunting demand increases, seasons on this bird could give additional sport without endangering the dove population.

Waterfowl hunting opportunity is limited, particularly in eastern Nebraska. Development of public management units and public access to marshes and swamps is needed to fill this demand.

Gibbon, 34, has a 1-3 record with the Giants in relief this year and has posted a 3.60 ERA.

Casper Fourth On Money List

New York (AP) — Billy Casper, winner of the Western Open Golf Championship Sunday, has vaulted into fourth place among money winners on the pro tour, according to figures released Tuesday by the Professional Golfers Association Tournament Players Division.

Casper, who previously was 12th on the money-winning list, brought his total to $78,259 for 13 tournaments, moving up behind the Big Three — Gene Littler, Lee Trevino and Gary Player.

Littler sat out the Western Open but still leads with $101,638, followed by Trevino at $83,442 and Player at $79,241.

Rounding out the top ten after Casper are Dave Hill, Miller Barber, George Archer, Bruce Devlin, Tommy Aaron and Jack Nicklaus.

Peru Thinclads High Nationally

Peru — Mike Mulvaney, Independence, Iowa, and Jack Weyers, Sterling, placed 4th in the discus and 5th in the six-mile, respectively, in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics track and field championships at Billings, Mont., June 6-7.

The two athletes were the first in Peru State College history to place in this national meet. Weyers placed 14th and 7th in the national cross-country meets in 1967 and 1968, respectively.

At Billings, Mulvaney threw the discus 161'3", and Weyers ran the six mile in 32:00. They were accompanied by Jack McIntire, Peru State track coach.

French Communist Party Unmoved

Moscow (AP) — French Communist Party official Georges Marchais told a news conference Tuesday that the French party remains opposed to the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia.

But Marchais said the Czechoslovak issue was ignored in French delegate Waldeck Rochet's formal speech at the international Communist conference Friday because the Czechoslovak delegates personally requested silence on the matter.

Marchais, a member of the politburo of the French Communist Party, said the Czechoslovaks felt any discussion of the invasion would be an "interference in the international affairs of the party."

"But we have already said we did not approve of the armed intervention," Marchais said. "We keep this line now."

Replying to other questions, Marchais said the pro-Peking movement in France today is "so weak you cannot call it a movement."

"In the past two years, their influence has practically disappeared," he said. "The French press gives it much more importance than it deserves."

'Quasi-Unanimity' Shown

Marchais said the five days of the conference so far have demonstrated "quasi-unanimity" among the delegates on the main document, which is a broad statement on the struggle of Communists and leftists against "imperialism."

He said he could not report full unanimity because the Australians made some reservations and many of the 75 delegations still have not spoken.

Marchais' news conference was one in the series scheduled in connection with the Communist forum.

Speakers at Tuesday morning's session of the full meeting were delegates from Austria, Bulgaria, Cuba, East Pakistan, and Iraq.

WIDE WORLD OF ENTERTAINMENT

HIS FIRST PLUNGE INTO A NEW WORLD

Every week, in this community, and around the nation, boys launch their own newspaper business. A high percentage succeeds.

They succeed because this venture is a challenge to their ability to accept responsibility and do something worthwhile on their own. They succeed because of the newspaper's orientation and training program. They succeed because their parents are solidly behind them, constantly interested and always ready with encouragement and advice.

Success is important to the newspaperboy. By succeeding in his own business enterprise, he establishes confidence in himself and sets patterns of behavior which will help him over the years ahead, no matter what he chooses to do in life.

Let your son know how proud of him you are. Let him know that his success is important to you, too.

Immediate Revision Of Rates Is Sought

. . . FOR REIMBURSING HOMES

"Immediate revision" of the reimbursement rates to nursing care homes for welfare patients and "adequate appropriation" to meet requirements has been requested of the Legislature's Budget Committee by the Lincoln Hospital and Health Council.

In a letter to Budget Committee Chairman Sen. Richard Marvel of Hastings, Lincoln Hospital and Health Council officials recommended a maximum payment of $400 per month for welfare patients in licensed skilled nursing care homes and a maximum of $200 per month for patients in licensed personal care homes.

The council "respectfully recommends immediate revision of the State Department of Welfare's administrative rulings to establish specific minimum and maximum payments by licensure" as $200-$400 for licensed skilled nursing care and $150-$200 for personal care, according to the letter.

'Realistic Rates'

The council also recommended "adequate appropriation from the State Legislature to meet the financial requirements of these realistic reimbursement rates."

According to Welfare Department administrative rulings, counties are allowed to pay only $300 maximum per month from state funds for a welfare patient.

The council requested a meeting with the Budget and Appropriations Committee to discuss the recommendations.

Council President John Lawlor, Director Michael Higgins and Nursing Home Advisory Committee Chairman Kenneth King contended in the letter that the "inadequate reimbursement rates" for welfare recipients is resulting in many patients receiving too little care, some receiving a higher level of care than is medically necessary and "too many patients not receiving any care at all."

Reimbursement Rate

The rate of reimbursement, it was pointed out, is perpetuating substandard facilities, resulting in subsidization of welfare patients by private-paying patients, reducing the number of beds available for welfare patients and limiting the level of care for welfare patients to less than minimum standards of skilled nursing care.

The Lincoln officials emphasized that welfare patients are entitled to "good quality of professional care" and that the "level of care provided for all patients must be based on need and not on ability to pay."

It was noted that the Lincoln Hospital and Health Council's Long-Term Care Community Plan shows that more than one-third of the county's welfare patients are receiving a lower care than their physical condition demands.

Some 46 patients in the County Convalescent Unit and in an acute-care hospital are costing taxpayers an amount equal to adequately caring for 87 welfare patients in skilled nursing care homes. The reimbursement rates are forestalling construction of needed additional units, it was reported.

Heart Recipient Dies In S. Africa

Cape Town, South Africa (AP) — William Douglas Killops, 63, South Africa's fourth heart transplant recipient, died Tuesday night, Groote Schuur Hospital announced. He was the second of Dr. Christiaan Barnard's heart graft patients to die.

The cause of death was not disclosed but it was believed to be pneumonia. Killops received his new heart April 7.

RONALD AUGUST

Policeman Is Innocent Of Murder

Mason, Mich. (AP) — Ronald August, a suspended white Detroit policeman who admitted killing a Negro youth at the Algiers Motel during the 1967 Detroit racial riots, was found innocent Tuesday of first-degree murder in the case.

After hearing the verdict, August, 30, who claimed he killed Aubrey Pollard, 19, in self-defense, appeared near tears as he stepped into a waiting car outside the courthouse of this rural central Michigan city.

"I'm going to pray," he told a reporter who asked what his plans were now.

The all-white jury of 11 women and one man deliberated for about three hours before reaching its verdict.

Circuit Judge William Beer ordered the jury to find August guilty of first-degree murder or to acquit him. The judge gave no explanation for ruling out the secondary convictions of second-degree murder or manslaughter.

A conviction of first-degree murder would have carried a mandatory life sentence.

Stock Market Loss Is Moderate, Broad

New York (AP) — A late sinking spell sent the stock market to a moderate but broad loss in relatively quiet trading Tuesday.

Brokers said a slowly slipping market was pushed downward in the last hour by a remark by Treasury Secretary Kennedy that price and wage controls might be necessary if the income tax surcharge isn't extended. He said the economy is close to "runaway" inflation.

The market already had been laboring under pressure generated by the increase Monday of the bank prime rate to a record 8½% from 7½% in a further tightening of credit.

Prices held fairly steady in early trading after falling moderately Monday. But the loss widened in the final hour.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials closed at 912.49 with a loss of 5.56 which had expanded from 1.88 at 1 p.m. EDT and 2.85 at 1:30 p.m. EDT.

The Associated Press 60-stock average, off 2.3, hit another new 1969 low of 324.5 with industrials down 4.4, rails down .7 and utilities down .9. Industrials and rails also were at new lows for the year.

Of 1,588 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 970 fell and 374 rose. There were 241 new 1969 lows against 10 new highs.

Volume of 10.66 million shares was a shade above the 10.65 million shares traded Monday.

Just before the final bell a block of 253,500 shares of Martin Marietta crossed the ticker tape at 22½, off ½. The issue closed at 22⅝, off ⅜, on total volume of 263,900 shares, making it the most active.

Standard Oil Ohio, still basking under the glow of its planned merger with British Petroleum, was second most active, up 2¾ at 101¾ on 249,100 shares.

Motors, rubbers, farm implements, utilities, nonferrous metals chemicals, rails, oils, airlines, tobaccos, building materials and drugs declined. Aircrafts were mostly higher.

Prices declined on a broad front on the American Stock Exchange. The exchange index fell 17 cents to $30.07. Volume contracted to 4.92 million shares from 5.57 million shares Monday.

EVERYBODY'S MONEY:

Firms Improving In Coping With Increased Transactions

By Merryle S. Rukeyser

MERRYLE RUKEYSER

Delays Abnormal

With the short trading day, a vast investment in new electronic equipment, and the moving of major brokerage partners into the record keeping department, Wall Street firms are making some progress in coping with the greatly enlarged volume of transactions in listed securities. The delays are still abnormal in over-the-counter securities.

A recent survey purported to show that Stock Exchange firms are getting only the customary number of "fails" on securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange. A "fail" is a default by the selling broker in making delivery of securities on time to the buying broker to complete transactions. A transaction can be concluded promptly only when securities are in Street names, that is, those of brokers. When transfer of title from one investor to another must be made thrugh a banking institution which serves as registrar, there have been much greater delays.

Obviously with the tremendous increase in public participation in security markets, the old, hand-made "horse and buggy" techniques of concluding trades and title transfers have become obsolete. The Stock Exchange has encouraged an experiment in a limited clearing at a central place of certificates of selected active securities. The ultimate aim is to change the physical character of certificates and put them on punch cards which can be expeditiously handled by electronic devices. This major change requires concurrence by a number of state legislatures.

New Problem

In the march of progress, the New York Stock Exchange was recently confronted with another problem. An enterprising corporate brokerage house jumped the gun by announcing its desire to "go public"; that is, to sell shares in its own business to outsiders.

Up to now, capital in a brokerage firm has been supplied by the principal active partners and by moneyed limited partners, but the growth of the market has enormously increased the need for brokers' capital funds. There may also be in some brokers a trace of the "wheeler-dealer" spirit with a desire to "eat their cake and have it, too."

In other lines of business which have gone the route from limited private ownership to scattered investor ownership, the principals have taken capital gains, improved their liquidity, and retained control while lessening their risk commitment.

The slowness of the Stock Exchange to change reflects in part its desire to insist on the trustworthiness of broker-owners. Welching on trades on the floor is unforgivable, and leads to expulsion for "conduct unbecoming a member." Until recent years, the Stock Exchange required that brokerage houses be partnerships, with unlimited liability for general partners, but now the corporate form is permitted.

The Stock Exchange has had a committee wrestling with this problem of going public for more than a year. In the public interest, it is desirable to have houses run by responsible personalities with a big financial commitment of their own funds.

There are collateral questions. Gamblers and Mafia racketeers have taken advantage of free markets to muscle into legitimate business enterprises. The Stock Exchange doesn't want to open the floodgates to admit unsuitable people into fiduciary relationships.

There are other complications. For example, if a brokerage firm went public and if control were quietly picked up by a mutual fund, the propriety of a big institutional buyer and seller of securities owning a "captive" brokerage firm would be questioned.

Certainly the investor wants to deal with ethical and responsible people. Any breakdown in controls should be avoided. Informally, the Stock Exchange firms have in recent years allocated cash and have pledged credit to a special fund to protect customers from loss in the event of brokerage trouble. This is not a legal obligation, but a policy. This would be difficult to implement unless the Stock Exchange should retain a degree of control over members.

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries from readers concerning their financial problems. Letters with stamped self addressed envelopes should be sent in care of The Lincoln Star. Questions of general interest will be answered in the column. Others, to the extent time permits, will be handled by mail.)

Bill Which Would Penalize Troubled Colleges Blocked

Washington (AP) — A bill that would require colleges to file a plan for dealing with campus violence in order to get federal funds stirred up a storm in the House Education and Labor Committee Tuesday.

Although a majority of the committee favors the bill, an attempt to rush it through was blocked by opponents' objections to hasty action.

Chairman Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., who favors sending a moderate bill to the floor before impatient members pass a stringent one, said another attempt to win committee approval will be made Wednesday.

The bill before the committee was drafted over the weekend by Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., and a handful of Republican committee members.

Besides requiring colleges to have a plan for dealing with campus violence, it would require them to provide "effective" lines of communication between students, faculty and administrators.

More Aid Cuts Added

Another provision in the bill would extend an existing law that cuts off federal aid to students who help disrupt a campus to include veterans on the GI Bill of Rights and students receiving Social Security benefits because of the death or disability of their parents.

Mrs. Green described the bill as moderate, reasonable and a compromise, but it was sharply criticized by other members.

Rep. John Brademas, D-Ind., who accused supporters of trying to "railroad" it through said it would increase the antagonisms that lie behind much of the student violence.

"With this bill" he said "you are writing a prescription that will be warmly received by advocates and apostles of violence and extremism on the campus."

Brademas said he had discussed the bill with U.S. Commissioner of Education James E. Allen, who would have to administer it, and found him strongly against it.

Hesburgh Said Opposed

Brademas said the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, president of the University of Notre Dame who has taken a strong stand against student militants, also opposes the measure.

"He thinks the universities should control themselves," Brademas said, "and there is increasing evidence that this is just what they are doing."

Rep. Patsy T. Mink, D-Hawaii, who called the bill "an attempt to federalize all education," offered a motion to kill it that was defeated, 19 to 16.

Mrs. Green, who presided over several weeks of hearings on student unrest, said the bill is designed to spur college administrators to think about the problem and prepare to deal with it.

Most of the college presidents who appeared at the hearings, she said, "had the attitude that "it can't happen here.' "

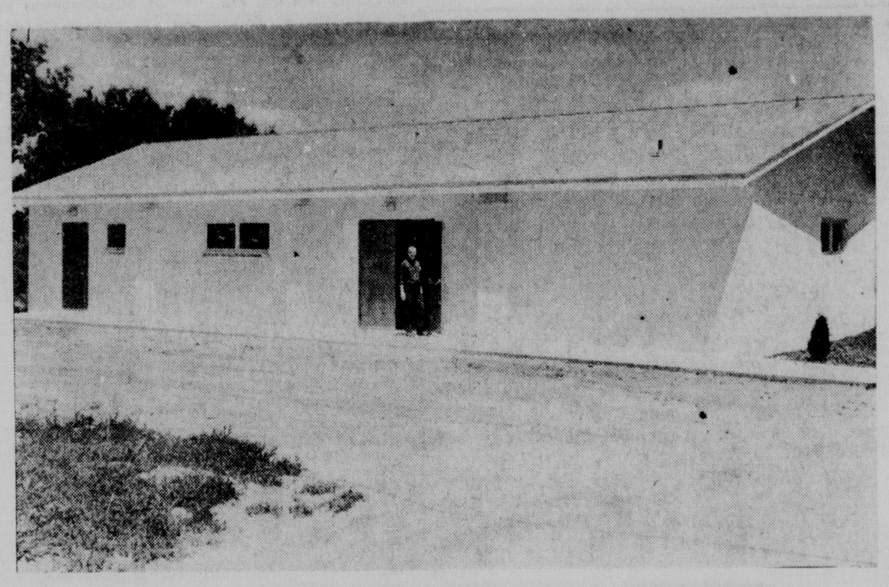
Support Strong

The 19 votes against killing the bill represent a solid majority for it that may be increased if some changes are made.

Perkins, who supports it, said he will try to eliminate the new provisions that would cover students receiving veterans and Social Security benefits.

"But there is going to be legislation in this area," he said.

"All you have to do is walk through the halls of Congress and you know there is going to be legislation."



NEW YUTAN VILLAGE HALL READIED

Jim Anderson, village clerk, stands in the door of the new village hall at Yutan. The hall, built at a cost of about $12,000, will contain the village library, a meeting hall that's to be used by local government and civic groups, and a kitchen. It goes into use just as soon as the furniture, which is overdue, arrives, Anderson said. (Star Staff Photo)

U.S. Judges Can't Accept Outside Cash

Washington (AP) — The U.S. Judicial Conference Tuesday forbade federal judges — but not Supreme Court justices — to accept loans, gifts, fees or "compensation of any kind" for off-bench activities.

The conference, with Chief Justice Earl Warren presiding also directed all federal judges to file a statement of their investments and other assets annually.

The 25-judge conference met in a special session at Warren's direction. Its resolutions also called on a committee to draft legislation to insure the conference could enforce its orders.

The conference was called following public disclosures of Abe Fortas's relations with the Wolfson Family Foundation and his subsequent resignation from the Supreme Court.

Judge Robert A. Ainsworth Jr. of the U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans and Ernest C. Friesen Jr., director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, discussed the deliberations with newsmen.

Ainsworth was chairman of an 11-judge committee that drafted proposals for the conference's consideration. He said they were adopted by "an overwhelming majority" with very little change.

Warren declined to elaborate on their presentation with newsmen.

Ainsworth said he believes "moral suasion" essentially gives the resolutions whatever force they may have now.

However, both Ainsworth and Friesen said the Judicial Conference has no authority over justices of the Supreme Court and that the 25 judges who make up the conference were fully aware of this.

Gromyko, Riad Ponder Proposal For Middle East

Cairo (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko met with his Egyptian counterpart, Mahmoud Riad, Tuesday to review Big Four talks on the Middle East.

Sources said that during their two-hour meeting they discussed the draft of a proposed statement on the crisis, by representatives of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union.

Gromyko is expected to see President Gamal Abdel Nasser Wednesday.

Mr. Schmid, a graduate of the University of Nebraska's engineering college, began his career in 1910 as a partner in an electrical contracting firm that built distribution systems bringing electricity to Spalding, Belgrade, Milford and Dorchester for the first time.

After his retirement from Consumers in 1956, Mr. Schmid became the chief engineer for the State Railway Commission, retiring about two years ago.

Mr. Schmid was a member of Rotary Club, YMCA, Nebraska Alumni Association, Touchdown Club, Lincoln Engineers, American Engineers and Professional Engineers.

Survivors include his wife, Anna; son, Edward A. Jr. of Silver Bay, Minn.; daughter, Mrs. Beth Hegeman of Alameda, Calif.; brother, Jerry of Schuyler; sister, Mrs. George (Julia) Howe of Schuyler and a grandson.

The Region II Crime Commission is looking for an executive secretary who will serve on a part-time basis.

Tom Pansing, commission chairman, said a commission subcommittee will soon start considering applicants for the position.

"Persons wishing interviews should contact the mayor's office," Pansing said. He said the salary, which will come from federal planning grant funds, will depend on experience and qualifications.

Duties of the executive secretary will include coordinating the commission's programs as part of the state comprehensive law enforcement plan, doing research, and handling matters delegated by the commission.

The fund-raising campaign ends June 17, so there is still a lot of "hard work" ahead, according to Leo Hill, campaign co-chairman.
